Looking Better

By SAM RAGAN

After watching the Wildcats work out briefly yesterday afternoon we were convinced that New Hancer's Idle Indians Regain Lead In BUCS BEAT PHILS football team looks better than it has in the past two years. There were 50 boys out digging in as hard as they were able and a sturdy lot they looked, too. And even if the team is not up to the peak that Coaches Bob Black and Rupert Bryan would like for it to be, it appears that the boys on the 1940 eleven are fighting hard to make

Working Hard

They really worked yesterday afternoon. While Bryan had the linemen charging into each other like a bull into an apple tree, Black was sending the backs through some of the plays they will be called on to execute this

Just imagine it. Three teams are so close together for the lead that only three percentage points separate them.

The Indians went to the fore again yesterday when they remained idle and Detroit, conveniently enough, was nosed out by and two ahead of the Yankeesthe team everyone is afraid of.

To call this one you would have your time at something easier than baseball.

Dodgers Purchase Alex Kampuris From Newark

BROOKLYN, Sept. 10 .- (P) -The Dodgers announced today they have purchased Alex Kampouris, home run slugger of the Newark Bears of the International league, for an undisclosed sum of cash and a player to be named later.

The money involved was believed to have been between $15,000 and $25,000.

By selling the slick-fielding, longhitting second baseman, today the New York Yankee organization, of which Newark is a unit, escaped having Kampouris fall eligible for the baseball draft whereby any major league club could have claimed him for $7,500.
