Lovely Wedding Solemnized Wednesday At High Noon At Lutheran Church

In a ceremony of grace and beauty Miss Gladys Ahrens be-came the bride of Joseph Hugh Clendenin yesterday at high noon at St. Paul's Lutheran church. The Rev. W. B. Freed, pastor of the church, officiated.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Eliza Schulken, organist, played To a Wild Rose" by McDowell, "Be-cause" by d'Hardelot, and "I Love You Truly" by Bond. Glenwood Blomme sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert, the wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march for the recessional During the ceremony "Liebestraum" by Liszt was played.

The vows were spoken before a chancel banked with palms and cybotium fern and southern smilax linked by seven branch candelabra. On the altar were vases of Easter lilies. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbons.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Adolph George Ahrens. The bridegroom had as his best man, William A. Clenden-

The bride had as her maid of honor Miss Mildred Clendenin, of Raleigh, formerly of Wilmington, and sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Howard Tucker, of M roe, sister of the bride, was dame of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Sara Bradshaw, Miss Gerda Quelch, Miss Dorothy Clendenin, of Morganton, formerly of Wilmington, and Miss Joy Pickard of Charlotte.

Groomsmen were Eugene Clendenin, of Washington, D. C., Howard Tucker of Monroe, Joe B. Fox, Jr., and Elwood A. McFayden.

The bridal gown was of Pearlglow duchess satin made on the 18th century period lines with a torso waist line. The bodice was buttoned down the front and draped round the hips into a soft cascade at the back. The neck and long sleeves had a touch of Breton lace. The skirt was circular and pleated on to the bodice falling into a voluminous train.
