BRIDE-ELECT OF LUMBERTON FETED

LUMBERTON, Nov. 27.—Miss Ruth Kirkman, bride-elect, was honored at a coffee hour and miscellaneous shower when Mrs. Erwin Williams entertained at her home Friday morning.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with smilax, palms and ferns, which were banked in the chancel and centered with fourteen branched candelabra and at each side were used two seven branched candelabra holding burning tapers.

The Rev. R. L. Jerome, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Allen P. Brantley, of Sanford, officiated at the ceremony before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Bertha Dalton Wright, of Lumberton, as her maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold L. Price, of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride, sang "Because," and just before the vows were spoken she sang "At Dawning." Among the organ selections given were Liebstraum, Schubert's Serenade, the bridal chorus by Wagner and the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

Among the organ selections given were Liebstraum, Schubert's Serenade, the bridal chorus by Wagner and the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

The Lumberton Music club, meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John C. Fuller heard a program presented by Knox Andrews, Jr., 5-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Knox Andrews, and piano pupil of Mrs. T. A. McNeill.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a princess gown of ivory white duchess satin. The bodice was buttoned down the back to the hips, the skirt flaring into a voluminous train. Her full length veil of Rose Point lace, an heirloom of the bridegroom's family, was fastened with a simple coronet of orange blossoms.

The maid of honor was gowned in Symphony blue faille, made princess style, with inserts of shirring. She carried an arm bouquet of bronze snapdragons tied with bronze satin.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents for friends and relatives and out-of-town guests. The entire home was lovely.

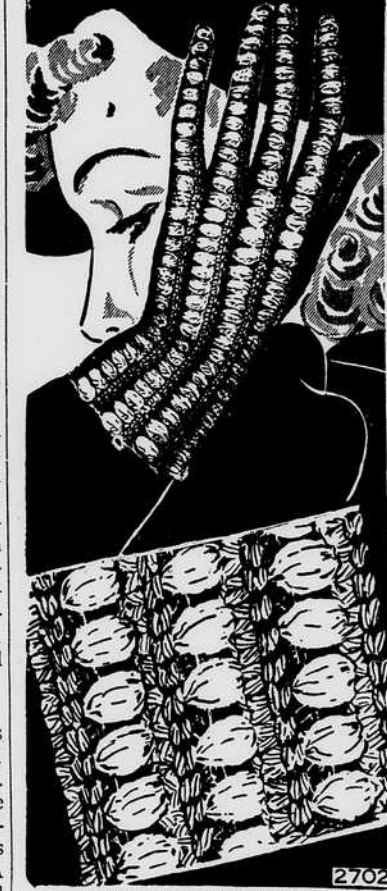

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McKinnon were hosts to the Neighborhood club with prizes won by Mr. and Mrs. David Fuller. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Allen, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. N. O. Benson, Mrs. Robert McIntyre.

both Ann Caldwell, Miss Lora Helton, Miss Helen Brooks, Mrs. J. A. Seay, J. A. Seay, Jr., H. B. Jennings, T. W. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Archie W. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W.
