Ten Per Cent Increase In

Membership Of Each Club

Listed As One Objective

GOLDSBORO. Dec. 12.-A four-point program of advancement for the division was adopted at the officers school of the 7th division of the Carolinas Kiwanis district held Tuesday evening in Goldsboro, with

Lieutenant Governor T. Frank Jones

The objectives are: Organization of one or more new clubs in the division during 1941; 10 per cent increase in membership of each local club; building up attendance of entire division; club competition in Each of the six clubs in the division was represented by one or more of its local officials and a full afternoon was spent in studying the the district and the 7th division for end one wasn't so bad. After that his distorted his face into what he hoped looked like a friendly grin and swung his legs to the floor. The floor came up to meet him and he dropped back, leaning against the wall. He rested for a moment, his eyes narrowing speculatively as they rested on his hostess. After a moment, he discarded his first thought as to his whereabouts. The kid, without makeup and prim in her woolen dress and flat-heeled shoes, didn't fit into

THAT picture. "Be a good kid," he ventured, 'and break the bad news gently. What are the charges?"

"Impersonating a gentleman," she said coolly. A gleam of genuine surprise came into his blood-shot eyes. "So help me," he murmured, "that's a new one."
