LOCAL STUDENTS' PLAN PROGRAM AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, Dec. 14.—In a traditional "Hanging of the Greens", Freshmen "Y" clubs at Woman's college will share the prevalent spirit of Christmas with their faculty friends Sunday evening, December 15.

Visiting the homes of Mrs. Charles Duncan McIver, wife of the founder of the college; Dr. W. C. Jackson, dean of administration; Miss Harriet Elliott, dean of women; and the campus residence halls, the group will hang Christmas wreaths and sing carols. Miss Eleanor Nobles, of Greenville, will lead the singing and Misses Edna Mae Groves, of Greensboro and Betty Dahlin, of Evanston, Ill. will give accordion accompaniment.

The festivities will begin at 7:30 with a special Christmas vesper service in the "Y" hut. The service is being planned by Misses Julia Davis of Boone, Elizabeth Jordan, Wilmington, and Mary McFarland, Hattory. It will feature special Christmas music and readings by Misses Lucy Corbett, Wilmington; Hall March, Mt. Airy; and Julia A. Amandy, Jackson Heights, N. Y. A candlelight ceremony will immediately precede the hanging of the greens.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold open house in the hut after the caroling.

WILLIAM HOOPER P-T. A. HAS MET

The William Hooper P-T. A. held the regular meeting in the new auditorium of the school on Thursday evening. Miss Maude Webber, of the High school Bible department, was speaker of the evening. Miss Webber will give two lessons a day this week at the school.

Miss Webber in her talk Thursday evening stated that every child has the right to a good heritage, the necessities of life, an education and spiritual advancement. She also said that she uses the Bible as a basis for her teachings, depicting certain passages to teach character traits. The parents were invited to sit with the classes that they might watch the reaction of the children of these teachings. These special classes will be held every morning between 8:55 and 10 A. M.

Igor Gorin

Famed concert and screen artist who will be heard here Monday evening at the New Hanover High school auditorium at 8:30 o'clock when he will open the concert season of the Wilmington Co-Operative Concert association.

Miss Nancy Ann Campbell Becomes Bride Of Alva Kilpatrick Cooper Here

(Continued From Page Thirteen) gowned in a lovely frock and wore a corsage of orchids. Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home in Oleander. The home was arranged throughout with greenery and vases of swansonia, gardenias and white sweetpeas. The mantels were banked with white carnations and white snapdragons.

Later in the evening the couple left for a wedding trip south, upon their return to the city they will make their home in Oleander. Mrs. Cooper changed to a smart costume of black with Persian Lamb trim and wore a small hat of Persian lamb. She completed her costume with black accessories and a corsage of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Cooper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Paul Campbell, of Oleander, Wilmington. She is a graduate of St. Mary's school in Raleigh and Arlington Hall in Washington, D. C. Mr. Cooper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Cooper, of Prattville, Ala., and has made his home in Wilmington for the past several years where he is connected with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. He is a graduate of the Starke University school of Montgomery, Ala., and is a graduate of The Citadel at Charleston, S. C.
