Man Who Slew Rival In Love Is Sentenced

LANCASTER, Pa., March 15.—(AP)—William G. Redcay, 23-year-old truck driver who joined the Menonite sect because of his love for the "girl across the street," was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment today for the hammer-slaying of a young rival suitor.

A jury of 10 men and two women returned the verdict after deliberating more than six hours on a crime which shocked to the roots this section of southeastern Pennsylvania where the peace-loving "plain people" live.

The beaten body of Robert R. Hackman, 19-year-old Dunkard minister's son, was found beside his partially-burned automobile on an isolated road January 12. Only a few hours before, he had left the home of pretty Eva Martin, 19, who said she had broken an agreement with Redcay about going out with others because she had found him dating other girls.

Committee Is Named On Aid For Firemen

A committee to solicit and receive funds locally for the assistance of widows and children of 12 Brockton, Mass., firemen, who lost their lives in a fire accident last Monday was appointed yesterday by Mayor Thomas E. Cooper. Solicitation will be in charge of Fire Chief J. Ludie Croom and Police Chief Joseph Rourk, while E. A. Laney, president of the Morris Plan bank will serve as chairman of the fund committee. Publication contributions can be made to Mr. Laney. Police and fire department members will raise funds from their own ranks.

All funds secured in Wilmington will be transferred to Mayor Fred D. Rowe of Brockton. The 12 firemen were crushed to death beneath the debris of a theater roof while fighting a three-alarm fire in sub-zero weather last Monday night.

Clean-Up Squad Moves In

No time was lost by clean-up squads in removing debris from grounds of Buckingham Palace after seven German bombs struck on March 12. Palace itself, in background, was unharmed. King and Queen were absent at the time, but a policeman on duty at a gate was killed. One bomb struck only few yards from royal apartments.

Smith Administrator Opposes Tax Claim

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—The Treasury's claim for $161,874 additional 1937 income taxes from the estate of William Graves, Winston-Salem, was disputed today by the administrator, who argued that part of the sum, already paid, should be refunded. The assessment was based on the Treasury's determination that $250,728 in legal fees owed to Graves as attorney for Elizabeth Holman Reynolds and her son, Christopher Smith Reynolds, should be added to his taxable income for that year.

RAILROAD UNIONS ACCEPT MEDIATION

Strike Ballots, However, Are To Be Counted Anyway, Leader Says

CINCINNATI, March 15.—(AP)—George M. Harrison, president of the Railway Labor Executives board, said today that 14 brotherhoods were accepting a mediation offer of the National Railway Mediation board in a dispute with major carriers, but would count strike ballots anyway.

The board yesterday asked the brotherhoods to postpone the counting of ballots from 750,000 railroad employees, who are seeking paid vacations, Harrison said, however, that the tabulation would not necessarily commit the brotherhoods to strike action, should the members favor it, since the dispute might be ended by mediation meanwhile.

The brotherhood heads will meet with the mediation board next Wednesday in Washington, he said. Balloting ends March 20, Harrison added, and returns are due in the various brotherhood headquarters' March 25, when counting will begin. The heads will meet March 28 to decide on further action.
