Miss Frances Thomas Benson Is Bride Of Dr. Cedric V. Zibelin

EDENTON, June 28.—The Edenton Methodist church was the scene of a lovely wedding this evening, at 8 o'clock when Miss Frances Thomas Benson became the bride of Dr. Cedric V. Zibelin. The church was decorated in evergreens and white flowers, ivy and other greenery was used to bank the altar, and tall standards held gladioli and fern. Cathedral candles burning in seven-branched candelabra flanked the altar.

Mrs. John Ross of Edenton, rendered an organ program of nuptial music. "Liebestraum" was softly played as the vows were being spoken, and the traditional wedding marches were used. Prior to the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. Robert Sheffield of Wallace, sang "Because" and "O Promise Me." At the close of the ceremony the junior choir of the church sang a benediction.

The Rev. Walter C. Benson, father of the bride, and pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. B. E. Slaughter, district superintendent, of Elizabeth City. Ushers were Charles H. Zibelin of Asheville, brother of the bridegroom; J. Knight Davis of Wilmington; John Robert Zibelin of Greensboro, and Steve Mallard of Wallace. The groom had as his best man, his father, Charles H. Zibelin of Wilmington.

Mrs. Walter C. Benson, Jr., of New York city, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a dress of shell pink marquisette over net and lace, and wore a shoulder length face veil of pink illusion with a bandeau of pink flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of garden flowers tied with corn flower blue ribbon. Miss Carolyn Whitley of Stantonburg, and Mrs. Robert Hadley, of Raleigh, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of corn flower blue marquisette, made identical to that of the matron of honor, and shoulder length veils of blue illusion with bandeaus of blue flowers. They carried arm bouquets of garden flowers, tied with shell pink ribbon. Little Miss Wansley Sharp of Wilmington, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore corn flower blue marquisette, with short puffed sleeves and square neckline. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Walter C. Benson, Jr., of New York city, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of white marquisette, made with sweetheart neckline, outlined with medallions of cream lace. Long sleeves, ending with points over the hands. The skirt gathered at the tight fitting waist, flowed into a sweeping train. The full length veil of cream illusion fell from a cap and coronet of heliolum lace. She carried a shower bouquet, centered with orchids. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

The mother of the bride chose for the occasion a gown of pink marquisette and lace, made with square neckline and long full sleeves. Her flowers were gardenias.

For traveling the bride changed to a brown and white sheer suit with natural accessories. Her flowers were taken from her bouquet.

The bride, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter C. Benson, is a direct descendant of William R. Davie, a former governor of North Carolina. She received her education at Greensboro college, and for the past four years has been a member of the school faculty at Wallace.

North Carolina and Atlanta Dental college.
Immediately after the wedding the parents of the bride entertained at a reception honoring the bride and bridegroom, their bridal party and out-of-town guest.
