Cookie Jar Raids A Compliment To Your Cooking

BY MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Service Staff Writer My grandmother used to keep her cookies in a bright blue crock on the top shelf in the pantrydid yours? And did you ever raid that crock knowing you'd get in trouble for doing it, but hopeful each time of finding something tastefully new and different?

If you were a cookie-cadger in childhood, then you know quite well that it's the greatest compliment to your cooking to have your cookie jar robbed regularly. It will be if you try one or more of these recipes, and remember to use the new enriched flour that contains vital nutrients white flour lacks.

OLD-FASHIONED ROCKS (About 2 dozen)

One-half cup shortening, 1 1-2 cups brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1 tea. spoon soda, 6 tablespoons hot water, 2 1-2 cups enriched flour, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 cups seeded raisins, 1-2 cup walnut meats.

Cream the shortening and add the sugar. Add well-beaten eggs and soda dissolved in hot water ours in colors that match your own kitchen accessories. Crocheted cloth has practical loop in the center so cloth can be tidily ung up to dry after using. Making several dishcloths—they're grand in not water. Mix flour, cinnamon and salt and stir in raisins which have been cut in picces. Add to first minimum and the several dishcloths. in pieces.
