We agree that fishing is the largest sport in the country and that more money is spent annually for sport fishing than any other sport in the country. And it is true that Wilmington has always enjoyed along with their many visitors this special alluring sport. And we hate to give up some or any kind of this sport, especially the best one and that is of channel bass around our various inlets and mostly at nights when the drum fishing is usually best. As I said before there is no regulation against it but for your own safety.

We do know however that there is no danger in the areas not designated as firing ranges, and you can go to the inlets including Rich, Elmores and New Topsail and Masonboro in motor boats in the day time and even fish in inlets in boats so long as you do not venture beyond the beach heads and bars. As there will be no fishing beyond the bars or so to speak off-shore trolling.

As to the Piers at night this situation has not been clarified yet regarding the use of lights while fishing, but feel that it will be published soon for the benefit of the anglers and Pier owners. However we do not see any reason for not fishing on them if you do not use a light and you might be able to do that but we cannot say as mentioned.

IN WINNING RUN

Victory Is Carolina's Seventh Against No Defeats For Season

CHAPEL HILL, April 17 .- (A) -After pitching masterfully for nine innings, Ray Hardee blew up in the overtime 10th inning and North Carolina's Varsity baseball team took full advantage of the lapse to defeat N. C. State 5 to 4 in an exciting game here today. Hardee's blazing fast ball and sharp curve completely baffled the Tar Heels during the regulation nine innings. Except for the seventh when they mixed three hits with two errors to score the tying two runs, Hardee had them completely at his mercy. During the nine innings he yielded only four hits and struck out five men. N. C. State had broken the 2-all tie with a two run spurt in the 10th .250 Singles by Warren Bailey, Grady Wheeler, and Tom Turner mixed in with a fielders' choice and Bobby Gersten gave the Techs two runs and Hardee appeared well on the way to victory.

> Carolina's winning rally started when Mack Morris first up, singled sharply to center, Hardee waiked "Chubby" Myers and hit Pitcher Horace (Red) Benton to fill the Another base on balls by Hardee to Gersten let in Morris with the first run. Hayworth grounded out short to second and Myers raced home with the tying run. Hugh (Shot) Cox, who ran for Benton, scored the winning run when First Baseman "Dub" Johnson's high fly fell safely between short and second.

> The victory was Carolina's seventh against no defeats in Southern conference competition and the Tar Heels' third in as many starts in the Big Five race. Coach Bunn Hearn's boys are leading the way in both circuits.
