FOREST RALLIES FOR 4-2 VICTORY; DEVILS WIN 3-2

Winners Come From Behind To Cop Thrilling Raleigh Doubleheader

RALEIGH, April 30.—(AP)—Late inning rallies gave Wake Forest a 4-2 victory over North Carolina, and Duke university a 3-2 win over N. C. State college, in a Raleigh sequentennial baseball doubleheader here today.

The games were as thrilling a pair of contests to be performed on Big Five diamonds this year.

Wake Forest came from behind to win the first game.

With the score 2-1 against the Deacons, Lefty Vivian, batting for Smidt, sent a double into left field, scoring Johnny Fletcher ahead of him.

Bob Reid put Wake Forest in a position to win by opening the ninth with a triple over third. After Clyde Whitener walked, Red Cochran hoisted a fly to Gersten, and on Gersten's high throw home, Reid scored. Cole then grounded out to Hayworth, scoring Whitener.

It was Wake Forest's first victory over Carolina in two years and the Tar Heels' first defeat this year in Big Five competition. It was also Pitcher Red Benton's first loss of the season.

Tom Davis, who plays a mighty good game of football, showed his talents were equally able on the baseball diamond, by breaking up a 2-2 tie with N. C. State college in the eighth inning with a home run.

Davis put his team in first place in both the Southern conference and the Big Five standings. The Blue Devils have won 13 out of 15 conference games and five out of six Big Five clashes.

Pitcher Bill McCahan rang up his seventh straight hurling victory.

Hurler's Sensational American Loop Career Ends With Sale By Tigers

DETROIT, April 30.—(AP)—The American league pitching career of Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe—one without parallel in the last decade for sheer brilliance and contrasting setbacks—came to an end today when the Detroit Tigers sold the 30-year-old right-hander to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BEAVER, WHITE WILL GRAPPLE IN 1ST MATCH

Promoter Causey Says 'It's An All-Star Card That Is A Natural'

Arrangements have been completed for the May Day wrestling card to be presented tonight at Thalian hall, it was announced yesterday by Promoter Bert Causey, who said the gladiators are ready for the gong and confident of victory.

And the promoter added, "the matches should be naturals," the term used in describing wrestling matches that are of an all-star calibre. Both matches will be for the best two out of three falls with a 75-minute time limit.

Bibber M'Coey, the roly poly Boston Irishman, tangles with sturdy Sailor Barto Hill, of Nebraska, in the main event, while Chief Little Beaver, Cherokee Indian, takes on the rough and ready Ed Strangler White, former University of Alabama football star, in the opener.

Chief Little Beaver is still complaining about not having been selected to appear in the finale, holding out that he is a main event wrestler and capable of taking care of himself against any wrestler or boxer. He is still horsing for a match with any boxer who will accept his challenge.

The M'Coey-Hill match, according to the promoter, should be filled with action from start to finish. M'Coey resorts to roughness, while Hill plays the scientific side until he becomes tired and is forced to rough it, when he applies his famous octopus clutch.

Promoter Causey said there has been a brisk advance sale of tickets and that indications point to a record attendance.

Doors at Thalian hall will open at 7:15 o'clock with the first event going on at 8:40 o'clock.

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons Aims For Fourth Derby Winner In 68th Event

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30.—(AP)—"Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons, the sage of Sheephead Bay, is the oldest of the trainers conditioning horses for Saturday's Kentucky Derby but he'll find no respect for his age when he sends Apache in quest of the $75,000 pot of gold.

The kindly 67-year-old trainer, who tightened the saddle girth on Gallant Fox in 1930, Omaha in 1935, and Johnstown in 1939, is the only trainer with a chance of tying the record of four winners established by the late Dick Thompson for E. R. Bradley.

He'll even find his runner-up position jeopardized by Plain Ben Jones, the Parnell, Mo., ex-cowhand who has captured two of the last four Derbies with Lawrin (1938) and Whirlaway (1941). Jones' hope is Sun again.

As trainers go in this business, where it takes years to learn the whims of horses, this is a young man's Derby. Just five of them have passed the way down to 30-year-old Art Fletcher, who'll challenge with the lightly regarded Fair Call.

Roy Waldron, the Beau Brummel of the group, is the only other trainer who ever has saddled a winner. He won the 1940 renewal with Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' long shot, Gallahedian, and bids Saturday with Dogpatch, another outsider from the same stable.

PHALANX BEATS ACL TEAM, 11-9

Kelly Jewell Holds Railroaders At Bay As Walkermen Climb From Cellar

Yesterday afternoon at Robert Strange Tommy Walker's Phalanxers climbed out of the cellar as they uncovered a reliable pitcher in Kelly Jewell, who held the A. C. L. batters at bay until the last two innings.

Late inning rallies weren't strong enough for A. C. L. to overcome an 11 to 4 lead and Phalanx won 11-9. Although outlit, 10 to 8, the Phalanx boys made good use of their bingles. C. Smith with a single and a double paced Phalanx at bat, and he drove in four of the winner's runs.

Grice, A. C. L. first sacker, was the day's hitting star as he garnered three hits and drove in three runs for the losers.

The Phalanx infield played good ball all afternoon and saved Pitcher Jewell a lot of headaches.

Today at 6:30 at Robert Strange diamond the Star-News will battle Charlie Hammock's Senior Frat team for the first place of the Hanover league. Both have won four and lost one game, and the last time they met the Frats won, 11-2. Pinner and C. F. Bell will do the hurling.
