

May Allen Keels Announces Plans To Marry Here

Church Of Covenant Will Be Scene Of Ceremony Saturday Afternoon, May 9

Miss May Allen Keels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen Keels, has announced the plans for her wedding to Carl Vernon Babson, son of Mrs. George Babson and the late Mr. Babson.

The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, May 9 at the Church of the Covenant, with the Rev. J. Harry Whitmore, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony.

Miss Keels will be given in marriage by her father and Miss Margaret Colwell, maid-of-honor, will be her only attendant.

Mr. Babson will be attended by his brother, James Wilbur Babson of New Bern, as best man, and Lawrence Frederick Haar and Robert Keels, brother of the bridegroom, will serve as ushers.

St. John's Episcopal Church Plans Service

The families of St. John's Episcopal church are requested to be present for the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning to receive the Holy Communion. The Presiding Bishop has requested that this service be held, and the Home, the Episcopate of Society, will be emphasized. Parish notes have been issued to all members and cards with suggestions for home worship enclosed to be used regularly each day.

Health Defense Group Plans Meet Thursday

There will be an important meeting of all sector, zone and central committee members of the Health Defense League of Wilmington and New Hanover county, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the USO club on Second and Orange streets. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Mary Slocum Engaged To Marry Lieut. John Tinga

Bride-To-Be Is Daughter Of Mrs. Robert B. Slocum Of Wilmington

Mrs. Robert B. Slocum announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary, to Lieut. John Tinga, Ninth Division, 33rd Infantry, U. S. Army, Fort Bragg.

Lieut. Tinga is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Tinga of Castle Haynes. The wedding will take place at home at an early date.

MISS LOUISE HOOPER—Attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Hooper, who is a senior at Arlington Hall in Washington, D. C., has been announced a member of the May Queen's court. The festival will take place in the late spring. Miss Hooper is editor of the college newspaper. She will receive her diploma in June.

Auxiliary To Medical Society Plans State Meet In Charlotte

Headquarters For Three-Day Session Opening May 11, Will Be Hotel Charlotte

The Auxiliary to the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina convenes in Charlotte Monday, May 11, for its 20th annual state meeting. Mrs. Sidney Smith of Raleigh, state president, will preside.

The three-day meeting will be filled with important business sessions and entertainments honoring the wives of doctors throughout North Carolina. Mrs. Smith will entertain the board of directors at luncheon Monday, May 11, at 1:30 p.m., at the Hotel Charlotte, followed by the pre-convention meeting of the board. The annual state meeting will be held Tuesday morning, May 12, at 10:30 o'clock at the Charlotte Woman's club. Dr. F. Webb Griffith of Asheville, president of the State Medical society, will speak to the auxiliary during this session. A luncheon will be held at 1:30 p.m. (Continued on Page Fourteen)

MRS. CALVIN HIGH SHAW—Of Blackstone, Va., who before her marriage April 25, in Hamlet was Miss Josephine Erwin Russell of Hamlet and Wilmington. Mrs. Shaw is connected with the Wilmington District Army Engineers office here and is the daughter of Mrs. Erwin McCanless Russell of Hamlet.

Miss Russell, Calvin H. Shaw Wed In Hamlet

Bride Holds Position In Wilmington District Engineer Office

HAMLET, May 2.—A wedding of interest in the state was that of Miss Josephine Erwin Russell of Hamlet and Calvin H. Shaw, which took place at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 25, in the First Presbyterian church of Hamlet. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. I. Howell.

The church was decorated with palms, fern, white hydrangeas and baskets of white snapdragons and gladioli.

Mrs. B. W. Dickinson, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Pvt. Harris Holden of Hamlet and Fort Leonard Wood, Miss., sang two solos.

Miss Rose Jordan, maid-of-honor, wore an aqua dress with matching accessories and carried an arm bouquet of roses tied with pink satin ribbon.

The best man was Hurley J. Shaw of Durham, father of the bridegroom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Erwin McCanless Russell, was attired in a tailored suit of maize imported wool with sheer white blouse and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

Ushers were James Brittingham, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, Hurley Shaw, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, Jimmy Copeland and Alex McIntire of Wilmington.

The bride's mother wore an azure blue crepe dress with a shoulder corsage of talisman roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue sheer dress with a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Shaw who is a graduate (Continued on Page Twelve)

King's Daughters Plan 52nd Annual Conference Here

Two-Day Session Opens Wednesday Morning, Board Meet Scheduled Tuesday

The What-So-Ever circle of the King's Daughters will be hostess circle to the 52nd annual convention of the North Carolina branch of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons. Mrs. Leon L. Motte is president of the local circle and will preside.

The two-day meeting is scheduled to be held here at the First Baptist church Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The complete program is as follows:

Tuesday, May 5, 7:30 p.m. Executive Board will meet in Cape Fear hotel.

Wednesday, May 6, 10 a.m. Credential Committee will be in vestibule of church so that delegates may register upon arrival.

Wednesday, May 6, 10 a.m. Convention called to order. Hymn.

Devotional—Dr. Sankey Lee Blanton, Pastor First Baptist church.

Solo—Mrs. Geo. L. Walker, Jr. Introduction of Honor Guest—Mrs. Henry S. Eley, Suffolk, Va., International President.

Address of Welcome—Mrs. L. L. Motte, president of What-So-Ever Circle.

Greetings—Mr. Hargrove Bellamy, mayor of City of Wilmington. (Continued on Page Thirteen)

National Music Week Programs Arranged Here

Daily Events Will Be Given Over Local Radio And In City Schools

National Music Week, observed annually beginning with the first Sunday in May, will be marked in Wilmington by daily programs over WMFD and special programs in each school chapel.

The radio programs are scheduled as follows: Monday—8 p. m., members from the Orpheus Music club; Tuesday—9:45 a. m., Mrs. Vernon Avery; Wednesday—4 p. m., Mrs. J. D. Edwards; Thursday—10 a. m., Mrs. Louis Hanson; Friday—4 p. m., Mrs. O. E. Durrant, Jr.; Saturday, 1 p. m., George Walker, Jr.

The school programs have been arranged as follows: Wednesday—William Hooper school, Mrs. J. D. Edwards; Thursday—Washington Cattlet school, Miss Floyd, school music teacher; Thursday—Bradley's Creek, Mrs. Joyce, school music teacher; Friday—Hemenway school, New Hanover High School Glee club; Forest Hills school, Glee club; (Continued on Page Twelve)

MISS FANNIE SPOTSWOOD COOPER—Daughter of Lewis Ginter Cooper and the late Mrs. Cooper of Greenville, whose engagement is announced today to Cadet Edwin Smith Pou, son of State Auditor and Mrs. George Ross Pou of Raleigh, now stationed at the U. S. Air Corps Officers school, Miami Beach, Fla. The wedding will take place in Mid-Summer.

Town Hall Musical Planned Tuesday At Local High School

Tuesday night in the New Hanover High school auditorium "Town Hall Musical" will be presented at 8:15 o'clock.

This will be the first variety musical of the year in that it is filled with entertainment which will be suited for both young and old. The New Hanover High school Glee club will be the feature attraction on the program and will present some fine music. The Glee club has just returned from Greensboro where it participated in a state-wide meet. Comedy skits will be offered and a community sing will give everyone a chance to meet and sing with his neighbor.

One of the most outstanding attractions will be the "Can Can Conga." In this newly arranged dance, eight brawny boys selected from the Phalanx fraternity will give the public their impression of chorus girl life on the stage. A surprise solo will be interwoven into this act and will prove hilarious to the public. "Gay Ninety" shows had nothing on this show; come and sing with your friends. Tickets can be purchased from fraternity members, glee club members, and at the Y.M.C.A. Marshals for the event are: Misses Doty Sutherland, Jean Jones, Hazel Smith, Mary E. Toms, Ann Johnston, Lucy Sheffield, Jean Vendig, Bunny Davis, Blanche Jacobi.

Mary Eloise Lewis, Willie Fales Marry

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lewis of Wilmington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Eloise, to Willie Fales on April 19, at Conway, S. C.

The couple was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harrell and Mrs. W. I. Coleman of this city.

Miss Brockington, Lt. W. K. Stewart Engaged To Marry

Bride-To-Be Heads Home Economics Department In Local High School

Mrs. Samuel Keels Brockington, of Kingstree, S. C., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Lee, of Kingstree and Wilmington, to Lieut. William Kimmy Stewart, Jr., of Wilmington.

Miss Brockington is the daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Keels Brockington and Mrs. Brockington of Kingstree and is head of the Home Economics department of the New Hanover High school. Lieut. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kimmy Stewart of this city, was formerly associated with Andrews. He is now stationed at the Mojave Anti-Aircraft Range, Barstow, Calif.

Health Defense League Members To Meet Tuesday

Session Will Be Held At 10 O'Clock May 5 In Local USO Clubhouse

Mrs. Charles Franklin Jones has announced there will be a meeting Thursday morning May 7, at 10 a.m., in the Forest Hills school. (Continued on Page Thirteen)

MRS. SPENCER A. O'BRIAN—The former Miss Thelma Langston, whose marriage to Capt. O'Brian of Camp Clairbourne, La., was solemnized Sunday, April 5, at New Orleans, La. Mrs. O'Brian is the daughter of Mrs. Samuel Langston of Rocky Mount.

Fannie Cooper Engaged To Wed Cadet E. S. Pou

Bride-To-Be Is Well Known In Wilmington, Popular Beach Visitor

GREENVILLE, May 2.—Lewis Ginter Cooper of Greenville, announces the engagement of his daughter, Fannie Spotswood Cooper, to Cadet Edwin Smith Pou, now of Miami Beach, Fla., where he is stationed with the United States Air Corps Officers school.

Miss Cooper is the daughter of Lewis Ginter Cooper and the late Mrs. Cooper.

Cadet Pou is the son of State Auditor and Mrs. George Ross Pou of Raleigh.

The wedding will take place in the mid-summer. Miss Cooper is well known in Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach, having visited numerous friends at Wrightsville during summers past.

Immanuel Presbyterian Circles Plan Meetings

The circles of Immanuel Presbyterian church will meet this week as follows:

- 1.—Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with Miss Frances Wettig, 1404 South Fourth street.
- 2.—Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Gibson Register, Summer Hill.
- 3.—Monday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Fred Griffith, 2103 Creasey avenue.
- 4.—Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. R. N. Mallard, 414 South Sixth street.

Miss Bowman, Mr. Rountree To Wed May 9

Invitations Issued In Wilmington To Wedding In Mount Airy

The following invitations have been received in Wilmington: They read: Mrs. Jacob Carroll Bowman requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Mary Erdene to Mr. Eugene Cleapor Rountree on Saturday evening, May the ninth at eight o'clock First Baptist Church Mount Airy, North Carolina

Miss Bowman is the daughter of Mrs. Jacob Carroll Bowman and the late Dr. Bowman, major, United States Medical Corps, of Mount Airy.

Mr. Rountree is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Charles Rountree of Kinston, and grandson of W. G. Cleapor of this city.