SENTENCE METED IN 3RD TIRE CASE

Howard Gets 15 Months, To Run Consecutively With Other Sentences

D. C. Howard, manager of the Cape Fear Taxi company's service station in Winter Park, was sentenced to serve 15 months on the roads at a hearing in Recorder's court Tuesday on a charge of larceny and receiving of an automobile tire which Sam Goforth identified as his property.

Last Thursday afternoon, Howard pleaded guilty to two charges of tire theft and was sentenced to 14 months on the roads on each count. Recorder Ferguson ordered all three sentences to run consecutively to give Howard a total of 43 months on the roads.

As in the first two cases, Howard gave notice of appeal to superior court and bond was set at $500.

When superior court convenes next Monday, Howard will also face trial on charges of the theft of two automobiles, belonging to E. K. Miller and Dr. H. K. Thompson. He waived preliminary hearings in Recorder's court last Thursday and was bound over under $1,000 bond in each case.

Goforth, whose residence is at 1112 Chestnut street, testified that a tire had been stolen from the trunk of his automobile and identified a tire shown him by Acting Solicitor Edgar L. Yow as the stolen one.

Upon cross-examination by Solomon Sternberger, Howard's attorney, Goforth said that he could not identify the tire by the serial number. He declared that he based his identification on the make of the tire and of the fact that it had been worn peculiarly because the wheel on which it was mounted was out of line.

Harry E. Fales, superintendent of the city-county bureau of identification, who swore out the warrant for Howard's arrest, then told the court that Goforth had picked out the tire from among 30 others in his office.

Goforth was recalled to the stand and said that he examined the tire carefully when he removed it from the wheel and placed it in the trunk of the automobile just prior to its theft.

"I sincerely believe it is my tire," he said.

"Are you morally certain that it is your tire?" Recorder Ferguson asked him.

Upon Goforth's reply that he was, the recorder found Howard guilty. Attorney Sternberger did not put his client on the stand nor offer any other witnesses.

Other cases disposed of: George Troganos plead not guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and was found guilty and fined $25 and the costs. He took a 10-day stay of sentence and bond was set at $150.

Alex Adams, negro, was granted a continuance until Thursday on a charge of reckless driving.

According to arresting officers, Adams is alleged to have crashed into a fence at the intersection of Swan street and Brown's Alley Monday afternoon, knocked a fence down, then crashed through the doors of a garage, knocked the rear of the garage out, tore down the porch of a residence and finally halted amid the ruins of the porch after a set of concrete stairs had been smashed from their foundation.

Woodrow Thomas, cafe employe, was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

Battle At St. Nazaire Raged For Three Days

LONDON, May 5.—A battle raged for three and a half days after commandos landed at the Nazi U-boat base at St. Nazaire March 27, and two British officers died heroically to assure destruction of the port dock gate by the explosive-laden destroyer Campbell.

The Free French press service said today.

"The French population fought beside the blackened British raiders while intermittent explosions rocked the occupied French port, the news service said.

After the destroyer, one of those transferred in 1940 by U. S. to Britain, was firmly wedged like a massive time bomb against the gate, the Germans demanded that the two captured British officers accompany them on an inspection tour to prove no explosives were aboard.

"The British officers immediately agreed," the news agency said, "they accompanied a party of high

Battle At St. Nazaire Raged For Three Days

German naval officers and engineers on board.

"No sooner were they aboard than the Campbell blew up. The heroic British officer and all the Germans who were aboard were killed instantly."

The account said the Germans seemed stunned when the British began landing.

"The French population spontaneously left their houses and attacked the Germans in the streets" said the correspondent's account.

Free French quarters previously have said that about 500 Frenchmen were killed, including some executed by the Germans as a reprisal.

"The Germans showed signs of panic," the correspondent added. "They then were expecting a full-scale British invasion and 2,000 of their sailors were immediately ordered to evacuate to the interior."

By 8 a. m. on March 28 a temporary calm had been restored, he said, and the Germans had succeeded in retaking the submarine base.

"But at 7 p. m., the old entrance to the submarine base at which two delayed-action torpedoes had been fired the previous night blew up with a violent explosion. As though by prearranged signal, fighting immediately broke out between the Germans, who had completely lost their nerve, and the French population and commandos. A series of small but furious battles were fought in the streets, cafes and private houses."

The hostilities continued over the week-end and only ended on Tuesday, March 31.

"The French population fought valiantly with any arms on which they could lay their hands."

C. Of C. Officials Aid In Drive To Dispel Rumors On Closing Of Beaches

Efforts of the local Chamber of Commerce to dispel rumors that beaches in this area will be closed by the local Chamber of Commerce officials throughout the state, Secretary John L. Morris said Tuesday.

"Recently we asked the organizations in this state to lend their cooperation in quieting the rumors, and many have gone to the extent of soliciting the help of newspapers in their respective cities. The response of the chambers of commerce is extremely gratifying," Mr. Morris remarked.

It is timely to mention that 25 years ago, during the first World War, the railroads operating from the city and the Tide Water Power company decided to spend $1,000 or more in advertising all over the state to dispel rumors that Wrightsville Beach would not open for the summer season. They also emphasized that rumors that the beach area would be blacked out were baseless.

Now, a quarter of a century later, no money has been allotted to still the rumors, but cooperation is being lent by officials throughout North Carolina to advertise that the coastal resorts will be open.

Rumors of the beach towns being blacked out are still baseless, though beach officials have gone to work and effected a "dim-out," which is in cooperation with military authorities so that the brilliant land lights will not silhouette ships at sea.

When the vacationist comes to Carolina Beach this season, he will find it glamorized, rather than darkened by the dim-out of the midway and the seven miles of ocean-front cottages.

Blue lighting, instead of glaring neon, will be featured along the midway, bathers, boardwalk strollers and buildings will take on a soft bluish tint and the wealth of activity, for which Carolina Beach is famous, will move at the same gay pace it has for the past years.

The war, too, shows strong indications of extending the normal beach season from three months to four or five. With so much work at hand, employes will stagger vacations.

James B. Schafer Is Sent To Prison

NEW YORK, May 5.—(AP)—De-nounced by the court as a "spiritual faker and a religious hypocrite," James B. Schafer, 41-year-old leader and founder of the Royal Fraternity of Master Metaphysicians, was sentenced today to from two and one-half to five years in Sing Sing prison.

Schafer pleaded guilty March 24 to first degree larceny in the swindling of a woman follower of $39,000.

Pan-Americanism Should Begin At Home--Sanchez

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 5.—(AP)—Pan-Americanism must begin at home, Prof. George I. Sanchez of the University of Texas declared today, asserting that "unjust treatment of Spanish-speaking children" in some southwestern schools does "more harm to Pan-Americanism than a shipload of Nazi agents."

Sanchez, professor of Latin-American education, told the National Congress of Parents and Teachers:

"If we are interested in the Mexican across the border but not in the one across the tracks, then I don't know what we are talking about."

He said "the social and economic problems of a democracy and between democracies are not solved by the application of the concentration camp idea, and the segregation of children of Latin-American descent in some schools of the Southwest cannot be regarded as other than the infusion of an undemocratic 'ism' to educational policy."

"Most of these schools simply inbreed the evils resulting from
