

STOLZ FIGHTS ANGOTT FOR TITLE TONIGHT

SAMMY FAVORED OVER CONTENDER IN CROWN BOUT

Pennsylvanian To Risk His Title Against Newark Boxer

BY SID FEDER

NEW YORK, May 14.—(P)—The betting boys and girls have finally decided it's about time they stopped giving Sammy Angott the "brush-off."

This practice of cold-shouldering the dark little man from Louisville and Washington (Pa.) has cost them quite a bit in the past few years. As a result, they've installed Sammy a 1 to 2 favorite to make the first defense of his world lightweight title a successful one at 10 p. m. (EWT) tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden against the classy Newark boxer, Allie Stolz.

This will be the first time the business of busting beaks has been on display in the garden since the circus moved with its own freaks and animals and such six weeks ago. And, while Promoter Mike Jacobs admits the circus is good, too, he figures this title offering and the long lapse between fights will make the customers sit up and take notice — with cash. He wouldn't be at all surprised, in fact, if some 15,000 contributed to a gross gate of $40,000.

In Stolz, Angott meets not only the best boxer among the little men since Lou Ambers decided he'd had enough, but the curly-haired Jerseyan also is rated among the better betters in the division, especially with a right hand. Although he was ready to quit the sport a couple of years ago because of a sinus ailment and actu-

New Yorkers Get 10 Runs In Eighth Inning Rally To Defeat Cincinnati

NEW YORK, May 14.—(P)—The New York Giants gave the Cincinnati Reds a dose of their own medicine today as they battered across ten runs in the eighth inning—more than enough to give Mel Ott's men a 12 to 6 decision.

The Reds scored 12 runs in one inning against the Giants on the New Yorkers' recent western tour. Today the Reds were sailing along with a 6-2 lead, built up in the first three innings on the strength of home runs by Linus Frey and Ray Lamanno.

Then came the explosion Babe Young, batting for Harry Feldman who had checked the Reds since Fiddler McGee had left the game in the fourth for a pinch hitter, led off with a double. With one out Billy Jurges walked and Ott parked his third homer of the year in the right field stands.

Wrestling Royal Set For Tonight

Luttrell, Hill, White, Saunooka Will Appear On All-Star Program

The ring having been reinforced for the enormous load it must carry, Promoter Bert Causey yesterday announced that everything is in readiness for the 'wrestling royal' to be presented tonight at Thalian Hall. It will feature four of the largest and toughest grapplers on the modern mat.

The wrestling royal offers the promoter a new and novel method of matching wrestlers. Under the plan, four wrestlers will appear in the ring at the same time—one wrestling three and vice versa. The first two pinned will form the first match with the victors being matched to appear in the main event.

Wrestling royals as a rule do not last long, but while they are in progress there is plenty of action and roughness, the promoter said as he promised this week's card ever witnessed in a local ring.

Contestants will be Cowboy Luttrell, of Fort Worth; Ed Strangler White, of Alabama; Sailor Barto Hill, of Nebraska; and Chief Osley Bird Saunooka, Cherokee Indian.

The first match will be for the best two out of three falls with a sixty minute time limit with the main event set for the best two out of three falls with a ninety minute time limit.

Doors at Thalian Hall will open at 7:15 o'clock with the first event starting at 8:40 o'clock.

Al Massey, boxer and an expert on wrestling rules, will referee.

"Our army and Navy are in action, and we know that it will do no good whatever to turn out a flood of goods a year from now if we do not have adequate equipment and supplies for the emergencies that are certain to arise this year," Nelson said in an address prepared for the annual dinner of the National Institute of Social Sciences. The Sox pounded an old mate, Jack Knott, for seven of their nine hits to take advantage of four Philadelphia errors and eight passes. They topped it off with a perfect squeeze play when Bob Kennedy crowded the plate from third in the seventh just as Pitcher Bill Dietrich batted.

Old-time sour-mash Bourbon made for the 1 person in 5 who appreciates the best

$1.10 PINT $2.10 QUART

It's been a real sensation how sales on Bard's Town Whisky have gone up since people are finding out how much old-time methods add to whisky flavor and mellowness.

We make this Bourbon the old slow way—the sour-mash method. We cook it slowly—use moderate heat. Fermentation is full 96 hours, and the water used is natural limestone water from our own Bourbon Springs, famous for making fine Kentucky whiskies for over 120 years.

Only a little of this whisky can be made each year by these slow methods, so we aim to please the 1 person in 5 who appreciates its extra richness and mellowness. Just compare Bard's Town with your present favorite.
