

WILMINGTON BOY AMONG MISSING

Name Of Charles Horace Batson Is Listed In The Navy's Casualty List

WASHINGTON, May 14—(AP)—The Navy Department announced tonight the names of Southeastern North Carolinians who were listed as missing. They were classified as: "Officers none; enlisted personnel 33."

The list, compiled May 6, covered the period from December 7, 1941 to April 15, 1942, inclusive.

The following gives the name of the missing, his rating, whether in U. S. Navy or Naval Reserve, and the name and address of his next of kin:

Barnhill, Elmon, seaman, first class, U. S. Navy; father, John Hulan Barnhill, Hampstead.

Batson, Charles Horace, apprentice seaman, U. S. Naval Reserve; father, William H. Batson, 712 S. Fifth street, Wilmington.

Bolton, Wilbur, Jr., fireman, first class, U. S. Navy; father, Wilbur Bolton, Sr., Rich Square.

Hyde, Claywell Thomas, pharmacist's mate, second class, U. S. Navy; wife, Mrs. Willie Mae Hyde, Whittier.

Lancaster, Henry Franklin, seaman, first class, U. S. Navy; mother, Mrs. Ida Lancaster, Parkton.

Smith, Stacey Hugh, seaman, second class, U. S. Navy; father, Stacey Kembrough Smith, Dudley.

Tetterton, William Ellodious, fireman, second class, U. S. Navy; mother, Mrs. Bertha Tetterton, Bath.

Fourteen Enlisted For Navy Service At Local Office

Fourteen men have enlisted in the Navy and Naval Reserve through the local recruiting office during the past week, officials announced Thursday.

Leon R. Ward, 25, Chadbourne; John C. Hondros, 21, Clinton; Robert K. Mills, 35, Wilmington; William J. Faulk, 18, Ash; Victor A. Brown, 23, Wilmington; Thomas E. Spivey, 17, Mullins, S. C.; Monos Bowling, 24, Bolivia; James H. Cox, 18, Scotts Hill; Lawrence C. Floyd, 22, Orrum; Carl H. Holdsher, 17, Clinton; Grover C. Mozolino, Jr., 18, Clinton; Avant G. Butler, 21, negro, Wilmington; and Lenard Ford, 20, negro, Orrum.

These enlistments are only a small fraction of the men actually needed to supply the man power in the fighting forces of the Navy, recruiting officers said.

There is no limit to the number of men, white or negro, who can be enlisted in the armed services.

It was also announced that men who are now registered for selective service can at any time, enlist in the U. S. Navy, provided they have not been actually inducted into the Army. This may be done without a release from their draft boards.

There are also a large number of vacancies in the Navy for men between the ages of 17 to 50 years of age who have specialized training in various types of work, particularly: electricians, carpenters, machinists, pipefitters, radio material-men, pharmacists who are registered and in good standing, crane operators, blacksmiths, and ex-merchant marine men.

Those interested are requested to apply in person to the Wilmington Navy Recruiting office, room 208, Post Office building, hours are 8 o'clock a. m., until 8 o'clock p. m., and on Sunday from 8 o'clock a. m., to 1 o'clock p. m., or later.

Flue-Cured Tobacco Crop Off To Good Start

RALEIGH, May 14—(AP)—The flue-cured tobacco crop is off to a good start in the border and new bright belts. L. T. Weeks, N. C. State college tobacco specialist, reported today. "It looks as if the crop will be a week to 10 days earlier this year than it was last year," Weeks stated. He said blight mold had caused little damage.

Diamond Oddity
So rare are evenly colored diamonds of gem quality that they often command a greater price than colorless diamonds of the same size, yet the color is due to a slight impurity in the carbon of which the stone is composed.

MAY BE UNFIT
RALEIGH, May 14—(AP)—Vegetables and other crops grown on land treated with arsenate of lead for control of Japanese beetles "may be unfit for human consumption and may contain enough poison to cause serious injury," C. H. Brown, chief of the Entomology division of the State Department of Agriculture, warned today.

Firemen, finding the water supply too low, utilized vinegar stored in huge vats to put out a fire in a vinegar factory in Santa Rosa, Calif.
