Musical Revue Will Be Staged This Week By Shipyard Employees

Among the principals appearing in the Musical Revue Hi Mate, being produced and staged by the employees of the North Carolina Shipbuilding company, will appear James Gordon, nationally known negro baritone. Gordon will be accompanied by James Thompson of the Williston High school faculty. The career of this singer is studied with appearances with such stars as Paul Robeson in the play "John Henry." He is perhaps best known for his work with the nationally known "Chocolate Eclair" who appeared on the N. C. Television broadcasts. Many Wilmingtonians will be familiar with his work with the Eva Jessye choir, and the St. Elmo Johnson choir.

audience. Feats of mental marvels and physical impossibilities. Rabbits, and animals representing a complete menagerie will be produced from mid-air. The Four Tones will sing Negro spirituals in a most touching style. Many features will be presented in the Hi Mate Night club. Leavitt Smith will sing liting lyrics; Junior Williams, the harmonica rascal, will perform wonders with this humble instrument; W. O. Page will stir your soul with his rendition of the White Cliffs of Dover; Blackface skits by members of the Watch Force. Arthur Johns, will render The Deep Blue Sea. There will be a fashion revue exhibiting gorgeous costumes. A chorus of thirty beautiful ladies. Louis Keith will conduct a bathing beauty contest for the title of Miss North Carolina Shipbuilding company. Every department of the shipyard will be represented in the contest.

D'Aubour and Rene, nationally known dancing team will appear as the sophisticated tertioreans of this musical revue. This team came to Wilmington directly from an engagement at the George Washington hotel at Jacksonville. They have appeared at such hotels as the Ansley, in Atlanta, and the Edgewater in Chicago.

D'Aubour and Rene have presented their talents far and wide. In Australia they were most popular. In Cuba they were a sensation.

Sorosis Welfare Department Ends Successful Year

Mrs. J. C. Layton, Chairman Of Project, Makes Annual Report Of Activities

The Welfare department of North Carolina Sorosis, which maintains a baby clinic and milk station throughout the year as one of its main projects, has completed a most successful year under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. C. Layton.

Mrs. Layton in her annual report announced the clinic attendance for May 1, 1941 through May 1, 1942, was 680 persons. Mrs. Layton gave the following figures in her report: 2,232 cans of milk, 581 cans of vegetables, 368 boxes of cereal, 89 visits to babies and 106 visits to pre-natal cases. Money spent during the year included $447.33 for fresh milk; $168.10 for can milk; $16.59 for canned foods, $17.20 for medical supplies with a total of $649.22.

Mrs. Layton was assisted in her work by Dr. Merl Carson, who was present each Wednesday morning at the club clinic and by Mrs. Ida Holton nurse, who assisted Dr. Carson. Miss Eleanor Wood acted as assistant to Mrs. Layton.

Mrs. Layton's report is as follows:

Every Wednesday morning from 9 to 12 noon, this department conducts a "Well Baby Clinic" for babies from birth to 3 years of age. We have in attendance a pediatric and a trained nurse. The child is given a thorough examination and a complete record is kept of each case. The mother is advised on care and treatment of the child and when the mother cannot secure the proper diet for her child, we do so. In most cases this is necessary as this clinic is for indigent families only. We have also investigated and supplied a quart of fresh milk daily to 107 mothers to be. These pre-natal cases being referred to us by the City Health department.

We received as gifts during the past 12 months, the following: 311 pieces of clothing, 50 yards of cloth, 1 baby bed, 2 bed springs, 3 mattresses, 2 baby carriages. All placed in the homes of our pre-natal cases or the mothers who bring their babies to our clinic. $41.00, used to buy shoes and help a mother with her rent while her husband was serving time on the road. We furnished transportation and took a number of babies to and from the hospital. We did the same thing in pre-natal cases, taking the mothers to be, to the City Health clinic for regular examinations. Thanking all club members and friends for past and future support of this work, this report is respectfully submitted by Sarah A. Layton, chairman.
