

CAPE FEAR LODGE NO. 2 INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS, CELEBRATING A CENTURY OF FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH

In Conjunction With The 99th Annual Session Of The Independent Order Of Odd Fellows Of North Carolina

100 Years Of Fraternal Achievement

Cape Fear Lodge No. 2 Independent Order Of Odd Fellows, Instituted May 13, 1842.

Grand Lodge of North Carolina organized and met in Wilmington for 8 consecutive years.

First meeting place on Water and Princess Street, 1842 — In 1843 a lodge hall in building where new Bailey theater is now located was fitted out as the finest in North Carolina.

In the year of its founding, a school was established at Fourth and Princess streets, where Woodrow Wilson Hut now is situated. This building was paid for by members and maintained until 1856 when it was sold to a Mr. Mcgenney. Here flourished the school famously and favorably known that later became the Washington Callett School.

Plans and promotion of the orphanage at Goldsboro were started by members of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2 and this lodge has been one of the most substantial supporters of the orphanage.

The present lodge hall and building pictured here was erected in 1904 and dedicated to the use of the Odd Fellows in this section.

Cape Fear lodge has furnished 10 Grand Masters for the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

FRIENDSHIP LOVE AND TRUTH

We're welded in the close fraternity of men in Wilmington . . . Now 100 years have passed and we meet and greet each other with pride in the abiding principles of our order. This lodge has weathered the storms of war and the stress of depression but we look forward with courage and faith in the victory of righteousness in the century ahead.
