Wilmington's few-and-far-between night baseball games last night were apparently a thing of the past for the duration, although no specific announcement had been made Club Officials Make No Anregarding Legion stadium's arc lights.

It's not fresh news now that on Friday the army ordered all illuminated athletic fields to cut their lights in its dim-out plan. Officials said local authorities would enforce the regulations. But as yet it is not quite clear just who in Wilmington is that authority.

However, an official order regarding the local ball park will probably not be necessary anyway. Far-sighted sports bigwigs - heads of amateur and semi-pro clubs in this section - are already remapping their

Club To Win Over Oilers And Top Position

By R. J. POWELL.

The Shipyard Progressive club combined a win over Amoco with Pepsi Cola's forced idleness to step up into undisputed possession of the lead in the Cape Fear baseball association yesterday as the first half race drew up to the half way

The Boatmen won over Frank Clemmon's Cannoneers, 7-5, at Hilon in the loop's only game of the day, but the victory was a hard up-hill struggle all the way-even with the five run margin gained by the victors in the very first stanza. In that round the Shippers jumped on Lefty Brew and a jittery Amoco team for five hits including one double and five runs to look like sure winners from the

However, when Righthander Headon Piner took over the slab in the third round the murderers row was silenced for the rest of the way as the chubby Amoco hurler limited the heavy hitters to five base knocks and one run while whiffing four. The only extra base blow by the Progressive boys after the second was Dejarnett's triple that Outfielder Turnage almost snared.

Manager Ed Urbon, regular left fielder for the Shipyard, paced his men with the willow by slapping out three hits out of four attempts Hoggy Davis, league leading hiter, was held to one bingle out of four trips. Sammy Reynolds and Aurther King starred at bat for Amoco as each got two safeties apiece, with one of Reynolds going for two-bases. Poor baserunning kept the Amoco boys from seeing home plate more often and a fast Cannoneer outfield probably prevented the visitors from running their count up.

Except for the first two innings, when the Shipyard team made Giants boosted their winning streak seven hits, Amoco outhit their feared opponents, getting nine hits the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-1, but the in all as against the Shipbuilders dozen blows.
