

Nash-Hodgins Nuptials Held In Washington

Former Wilmingtonians Married At St. Thomas Episcopal Church

Marked by simplicity and informality the marriage of Mrs. Ava W. Hodgins to Robert Norfleet Nash, both of Washington, D. C., was solemnized Saturday, May 23, at 2 o'clock at St. Thomas Episcopal church, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. The Rev. Howard S. Wilkinson, D. D., performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Hodgins, the widow of the late Mr. A. Hodgins, resided in Wilmington for six years and has many friends here. She was active in the Thalian association, being treasurer for three years. Mr. Nash, formerly of Wilmington, is the brother of Mrs. Mary Williams and Miss Margaret Nash. He is a native of Tarboro, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nash.

For the past two years Mrs. Hodgins has been secretary to Otto Lund, manager of the District of Columbia chapter of the American Red Cross. Mr. Nash is assistant vice-president of the Association of American Railroads.

After the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Canada, and will be at home after June 1 at their apartment in the Broadmoor Hotel, Washington.

Miss Johanna Boet Writes Article For Anniversary Program

GREENSBORO, May 25.—Miss Johanna Boet, of Castle Hayne, is one of the alumnae of The Woman's college of the University of North Carolina who contributed to the volume, "Alumnae Miscellany," which is published today as one of three books commemorating the 50th anniversary of the college.

"Tulips Are Red in Holland," a dramatic play depicting an incident of the Nazi invasion, is Miss Boet's contribution to the book, which is edited by Miss Nettie Sue Elliott and A. C. Hall, of the faculty in the department of English, with dedication to Dr. W. C. Smith, now retired, who was for many years head of the English department and dean of the college.

Miss Boet, who was graduated in 1941 and has been spending this year in graduate study at the University of Iowa, was an outstanding student at The Woman's college. She was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in her junior year, and received the Well fellowship upon her graduation.

Two other volumes celebrating the golden anniversary of The Woman's college which are published today are "Educate a Woman," a pictorial history of student life at the college, compiled by Virginia Terrell Lathrop (Mrs. Albert) of Asheville, and "The Walter Clinton Jackson Essays in the Social Sciences," by 11 faculty members with Miss Vera Largent as editor.

Robert Lee May, Jr., Will Graduate Today

BREVARD, May 25.—Robert Lee May, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. May, of 417 Wrightsville ave., Wilmington, is among the 89 Brevard college seniors who are candidates for graduation at commencement exercises here Tuesday, May 26.

Young May is a graduate of the Asheville Farm school, Asheville with the class of 1939. At Brevard he held membership in the Band, Folk-Dance club, and Delphin Literary society. He was also a member of the track team and editor-in-chief of the Pertoleto, the college yearbook.

These Recipes Are Handy For Wedding Meals

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Service Staff Writer
HIGH NOON is the best hour for the Spring wedding breakfast. It should be a sit-down affair and reasonably substantial. For an evening wedding, where a substantial sit-down reception menu is required, use the same food as you would for the high noon breakfast.

However, for a menu following a very early morning wedding—eight or nine o'clock, you should serve a real breakfast, consisting of fruit cup, ham and eggs, toast and rolls, potatoes, coffee and tea and sections of fruit as a "sweet."

That's advice of Margery Wilson, etiquette and charm authority. Here are some of her own recipes for the substantial wedding breakfast menu:

As a main dish, she suggests ham with candied sweet potatoes and a tossed green salad. You might buy a pre-cooked ham, requiring only an hour to finish it.

Make a syrup of brown sugar, cider vinegar and ground, mixed cloves; pour this into about twenty knife-holes which you will have made in the ham. Then baste the whole ham with the mixture two or three times while it is in the oven.

WATCH CAREFULLY TO AVOID BURNING

Take the ham out, butter it all over with mustard and in turn pack brown sugar into the mustard. Then insert whole cloves. Take slices of pineapple (thin-cut the canned slices in half) and stick these, with thin slices of red cherries, on the ham with toothpicks (remembering to remove later).

Put the ham back in the oven for about five minutes, watching it carefully to make sure it doesn't burn, until it is glazed.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit and orange juice, shredded wheat, toast, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Scrambled eggs on enriched toast, romaine salad, corn syrup cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Lamb stew with spring vegetables, hot biscuits, green salad, chocolate pudding, coffee, milk.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Entertains At Banquet

The Chi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its annual Founder's Day banquet in the private dining room of the Cape Fear hotel, recently. After dinner, Miriam McIntire, retiring president of Chi chapter, spoke briefly but entertainingly on "Happiness." Mrs. H. M. Roland, sponsor of the chapter, made a motion, which was seconded, that this talk be placed on the records of the sorority.

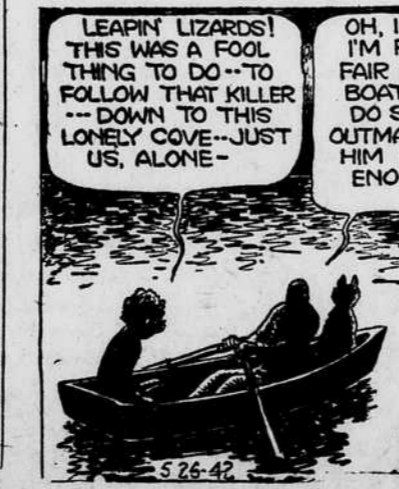

Miss McIntire then gave a toast to Miss Elizabeth Morris, who announced her engagement by presenting the sorority with a box of candy. Miss McIntire also gave toasts to Mrs. Howard Connor, a recent bride, and Mrs. James McKeithan, the sorority's first mother.

The sorority then presented Miss McIntire with a silver gavel, traditional gift to retiring presidents, and the program was concluded with the Closing Ritual of Beta Sigma Phi.

Cornelius Harnett P-T. A. Ends Year

The Cornelius Harnett P-T. A. held its final meeting of the year at the school last week with Mrs. Earl Tolar presiding. The devotion was led by Mr. Phillips after which the association joined in singing America.

Mr. Phillips then spoke a few words on the success of the public schools today. He said, success of our schools today is due to a better understanding between teachers and parents. Mr. Phillips praised the school for its cooperation.

Following the business meeting the teachers and mothers present served a supper.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Milton's Fifth grade, and Mrs. Platt's Second grade.

'We'll Win!' Says Busy Eve Curie

BY ADELAIDE KERR
Wide World Feature Writer

Eve Curie is back from a swing around the Russian and eastern war fronts with applause for America's war effort.

The French-born daughter of the discoverers of radium flew across the Atlantic to Egypt, visited Libya, the Levant States, Iran, Russia, India, Burma, China and returned by much the same route. The purpose of her trip was a newspaper reporting job which also gleaned material for lectures and a book.

"The differences I noted on my trip out and my trip back were tremendous," she said on her return to New York. "The return impression was encouraging. We felt that America moved in very quickly, that her effort was tremendous both in sending material and in maintaining lines of communication. We were saved last year by Russia. Probably next year we shall be saved by the United States."

"The United Nations will win. Their total strength is enough to beat the Axis. But they have to fight in so many places. The Allies were not prepared for war in the Pacific, but the Japs were equipped, determined and bold. The war shifted from a very small front to 'all over.' Both England and America have to adapt themselves to this situation which means shipping to and being in a great many places at one time."

Visits Russian Front
To Mlle. Curie the high spot of her trip was her four visits to the Russian front.

"In Russia I had the impression of a great war machine prepared for a long time," she said. "The Germans have met a powerful enemy. It was obvious, from the tanks and ammunition strewn all over, that they had withdrawn in disorder. The proportion of ground they have lost is not very great, but the Russian generals say 'Our orders are to encircle and destroy.' They are primarily interested in destroying the German war machine. I had an impression of determination and confidence in Russia. Their slogan is 'We will beat the Germans in 1942.'"

Mlle. Curie is slim, dark, quiet of manner and famous for her chic. But she gives little time to clothes, these days. All her efforts are bent on work. She is making a brief lecture tour now and has scheduled a four months' tour encircling the country in the fall. She left France soon after the fall of Paris and has since supported the Free French Cause.

Women of Nazi-occupied countries, who must remain nameless, are making interesting news. Twenty-eight Norwegian women recently escaped from the country in a fishing boat, crossed the North Sea and landed on Shetland Island. A Czech woman is in charge of a secret short wave radio transmitter, sending out information on German military moves and on conditions inside the country.

Another Czech woman has been executed for circulating anti-Nazi leaflets. A Soviet woman captain a small freighter carrying munitions from Britain to the Soviet Union. Two battalions of Australian women, one on horseback and the other on motorcycles, are serving as dispatch riders with the Australian forces. British women are replacing men in London garages and caring for their homes and families at night.

MIND YOUR MANERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. If you move into a new city and a hostess representing a number of the city's business firms comes to call, should you treat her as graciously as you would any caller?
2. Would it be all right to ask her any questions you want to know about the city?
3. If she gives you presents from the various merchants or a book of coupons which you can turn in for presents or credit should you thank her graciously?
4. If no hostess calls on you but there is one in the city would it be all right for you to call her and ask for any information you would like about churches, stores, beauty shops, etc.?

5. Should you feel you cannot invite the hostess in when she calls because you are not yet settled and the living room is cluttered with unhung pictures?

When you move to a new town a number of persons call on you—
(a) Return the calls promptly?
(b) Don't bother to return the calls if you think the place will not be your permanent home, or if you don't care about knowing a great many people?

- ANSWERS
1. Yes.
  2. Certainly.
  3. Yes.
  4. Yes.
  5. No.
