Trends Generally A Shade Lower On New York Stock Exchange

TO POINT OR MORE

Outstanding Buying, Selling Incentives Lacking In News Budget

NEW YORK, May 25.—(P)—There Compressed tered modest advances in D today's stock market but trends generally were a shade lower.

prices held to a fairly steady area at the start. Steels soon began to slip and bids for leaders elsewhere were withdrawn. It was a slip-shod session from then on and, at the the close, declines of fractions to a point or so were in the majority. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended with a net loss of 1 of a point at 34.1. Of 548 individual issues traded, 215 were down, 140 up and 193 unchanged. Transfers of 233,270 shares were among the smallest since August, 1940. A They compared with 329,460 last Outstanding buying or selling incentives, brokers said, were lacking in the news budget. Conflict- A ing Russian and Nazi claims in the fierce and long-drawn out battle for Kharkov caused many customers to adjourn to neutral territory. War bulletins from other sectors also provided nothing much in the way of bullish arguments. The cloudy tax program persisted as a speculative and investment handi-

Bethlehem Steel dropped nearly points to a new 1942 bottom but B attracted a little support at the last B and finished off 1/8 to 50%. U. S. Steel conceded 1/2 and Republic Steel 38. Youngstown sheet, on the other hand, was up 1/4. Expectation of expanding tax pressure on DECLINES INVIED steel companies and other war producing industries was a factor in some of the day's offerings. Caterpillar Tractor, J. I. Case and J. C. Penny were losers of about a point each. Lesser recessions were posted for General Motors, Chrysler, Western Union, U. S. Rubber, Woolworth, Doug las Aircraft, Sperry, Westinghouse, General Electric, Anaconda, Texas

Ward, Sears Roebuck, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Union Carbide, International Harvester, Boeing, United Aircraft, U. S. Gypsum and Air Reduction.

Bonds were as uneven as stocks.

Your opinions either make the advertiser successful or causes him to drop by the business wayside.

you'll appreciate most. Your appreciation of them is his only reason for offering them.

The average retailer has set up He knows that it's far easier to foolish to sell "the hard way" when you're in the market for so many immediate purchases.

In his advertising, he sincerely tries to show you that he has what you want. He earnestly wants his merchandise to answer your desires. He is completely at your mercy. Unless he shows you that he can benefit you in some way, he fails to get your business.

His personal opinion means nothing. It's what you think that makes or breaks him.

That's why good advertising for-gets the advertiser and looks at everything from the consumer's standpoint.
