Roosevelt Confident Nation

Will Go Along With

Pan-American Bloc WASHINGTON, May 25.- (#) Powerful but still neutral Argentina received a message from President Roosevelt today impressing confidence that the South American nation would trod those paths which alone can insure the preservation of those political and economic freedoms upon which our American civilization is based. To many, the message appeared to be an expresson of faith that Argentina would line up with the almost solid bloc of American nations opposing Germany, Italy and Japan.

The President voiced his hopes in a congratulatory telegram sent President Rooerto Ortz as Argentina celebrated her independence day. He telegraphed that "we are confronted with the harsh fact that many liberty-loving peoples whom less than three years ago were in-pressed." Ortiz has had to go into semiretirement because of failing eyesight and ill-health. It is reported that he does not agree with the policy of "strict neutrality" laid down by acting Presdent Ramon S. Castillo.

To Ortiz, Mr. Roosevelt expressed his "confidence" that "the spirit of resistance to aggression and devotion to democracy so nobly personified in your actions and in your utterances will lead the people of your great country along those paths which alone can insure the continued preservation of those poltical and economic freedoms upon which our Ameri-
