to the end. If I do not win in the first Primary, I will continue in the race throughout a second Primary (June 27, 1942) and until the voters have finally made their choice. I have no agreement with any candidate in this race, and have made none. There is ony one issue in this campaign—Who is best qualified in every respect to serve you as District Solicitor? The answer to this question should determine your choice. I invite a full investigation of my ability, experience and conduct. Ask the judges, lawyers, and people who know me. Then vote for me and nominate me in the First Primary.

Local Stores To Sell War Bonds On July 1

War bonds and stamps. . . . you likely will have the privilege of buying them and nothing more from local stores for 15 minutes at noon on July 1.

The Greater Wilmington Chamber of Commerce today announced a large response in the request for local retailers to cooperate in the nation-wide tribute to America's war effort by suspension of all sales of merchandise for 15 minutes during which time War Savings Stamps and Bonds will be sold exclusively.

Cooperation was asked of 125 retail stores in the downtown district, but any store interested in the special war bond program is asked to volunteer.

The complete list of volunteer firms will be filed with the Treasury Department as a Roll of Honor
