

WAR BOND PLEDGE DRIVE WILL OPEN

Campaign Will Be Waged By Treasury Employees Beginning June 1

In an effort to set an example for the rest of the nation, the employees of the U. S. Treasury Department throughout the nation will start a War Bond pledge campaign June 1, E. C. Snead, acting collector of customs announced yesterday.

Mr. Morgenthau feels that the Treasury department should set the example and he has asked each employee of the department to contribute not less than 10 per cent of his income toward war bonds.

In a letter to all employees of the U. S. Treasury Department, Mr. Morgenthau said, "Not only must we win this war but it is important that we prepare now to win the peace."

It was pointed out that investments in war bonds by the millions of salaried employees are not only necessary to enable the government to buy ships, airplanes, tanks, guns and ammunition, but that it is essential to withdraw this money from the ordinary channels of trade in order to assist the government in its effort to check rising prices.

The members of the Treasury Department are to enroll in a definite payroll allotment plan, Mr. Snead pointed out. It was shown that this plan assures a steady, regular income to the purchase of war bonds and is free from "hit-or-miss" decisions.

One of the greatest advantages in the purchasing of war bonds is the tremendous cash reserve which will be turned loose upon the bonds maturity, Mr. Snead explained. This great reservoir of purchasing power will be of benefit to everyone.

In closing the letter from Mr. Morgenthau stated, "War is never cheap, but let me remind you, it is a million times cheaper to win than to lose."

Junior Traffic Police Enjoy Outing At Beach

The 23rd Annual Picnic of Wilmington Junior Traffic Police was held at Carolina Beach May 28, 1942.

Eight school buses were used to take the 324 boys to and from the beach. This year's event was one of the most successful ever held. The boys thoroughly enjoyed themselves with plenty of food, soft drinks, ice cream, free rides, and lemonade. The lemonade was ready for the boys in big barrels set in the middle of street and there was lemonade through the day for all. The boys were served from one to six times, consuming a total of 1,924 sandwiches, 2,248 soft drinks and approximately fifty gallons of ice cream.

One of the high lights of the day's program was the dinner held in the dining room of the Palis Royal hotel. Lt. John Davis acted as toastmaster. Supt. Roland offered the invocation. Lt. Davis spoke in regards to the work of the Junior Traffic Police of this city. He stated that not a single traffic accident had occurred among the school children in New Hanover county this year.

Guests of the dinner, were City Manager Wallace, Mayor Har-

NAVY TASK FORCE PERFORMS THE JOB

Troop Convoy Escorted Safely Across Sub Infested Seas And Return

By JOHN A. MOROSO.
WITH THE ATLANTIC FLEET, May 28.—(AP)—Our naval task force has put into an eastern port after one of the most successful conveying jobs in history—a nose-thumbing thrust through U-boat-infested waters with ships carrying thousands of mechanized men and supplies to Britain.

We sailed serenely through "submarine alley" last night and this dawn, despite a brilliant moon to help the enemy on this last lap of our trip.

The captain put the bow of our hard hitting flag ship right on the channel buoy he had aimed at 3,000 miles away. We were just six minutes off the time he said he would hit the buoy.

The official record will list us as arriving safely. It will not tell of the skill and cunning exerted to bring us home without a single contact with enemy submarines sulking along our coast.

It will not tell of toruous zig-zagging in six days of fog, of sleepless, red-eyed officers who plotted and schemed how to outwit Axis submarines.

Using thunderous depth charges, we made 11 attacks enroute to the British Isles. We may have sunk three subs—an excellent record for one trip.

We lost not a ship in the 5,700 mile round trip.

I have sailed 10,000 miles with this unit and our record is still perfect. We have "pushed periscopes down" in every section of the Atlantic. We have bested fog and escaped German planes—an amazing record to a landlubber like me, but just an every day job to the men of the Navy.

The skipper of our ship typifies this task force. Living in a cubby hole on the navigation bridge he averaged less than two hours sleep in 24. His driving energy and fighting spirit was infectious to this Yankee crew.

Our record may sound strange to the civilian who reads of ship sinkings along our coast. He may ask how you get through when so many others fail.

One answer is that submarines dodge strength. They prefer lonely ships without guns or convoy protection. The other answer is skill in avoiding them.

Fabulous Profits Reported Realized On Navy Contracts

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—The House Naval committee heard testimony today that the Mine Safety Appliances company of Pittsburgh, Pa., had realized "tremendous" profits on millions of dollars of work for the Navy and had doubled the compensation of some of its executives.

Edmund Toland, committee counsel, reported that his investigators, in a study of the company's finances, had found that it made gross profits "ranging from a high of 122 per cent to a low of 38 per cent" in 1940 and 1941 on Navy contracts.

But George H. Deike, president of the company, in a statement placed in the committee's record, contended that Toland's figures failed to take taxes into account, and said that the company's annual net profits ranged from 7.44 to 9.49 per cent for the five-year period of 1937-41, inclusive.

For Recorder

In my opinion, the Recorder should be a man of proven ability, with the strength and courage to employ whatever lawful means that are necessary to correct conditions that are wrong, and stand by what he knows to be right.

During my term as Juvenile Judge, I met the very difficult problems of passing judgments on more than 1200 children under 16 years of age. Not one appeal was taken from my decisions because they were the result of conscientious effort to administer simple and impartial justice.

I invite your investigation of my qualifications, and earnestly solicit your vote and whole-hearted support in the primary next Saturday, May 30th.

LISTEN IN over W.M.F.D., 7:20 P. M., Friday evening, May 29th. Hear what I have to say regarding my candidacy for this office.

RESPECTFULLY,

W. K. 'Bill' RHODES, JR.

mand of the Third Army Air Force with headquarters in Tampa, Fla.

Lieutenant Allen was transferred to Hawaii in 1939 and soon after received his appointment as captain. A few weeks before the Pearl Harbor disaster, he was promoted to the rank of major.

In October, 1941, Mrs. Allen returned to the United States for a visit with her parents. Five minutes before the bombing of Hickam Field on December 7, she hung up the telephone after talking to her husband at that airport.

For several weeks, no word was received from Col. Allen and it was later learned that he survived the Hickam Field bombing without injury.
