War industry workers throughout the nation could well use as a model the athletic association plan originated by Wilmington shipyard employes to utilize what little spare time they do have.

The Cape Fear league-leading Shipbuilder baseball team is an example of the ingenuity of the sportsmen out at the North Carolina Shipbuilding company. A football team and other activities are planned.

Crowning feature of the organization is that it is entirely employe-operated. And if present plans for charging admission at Sunday games meets county commission approval, it should be self-sustaining.

Since Maritime commission regulations will not permit the firm to make financial allowances for recreational facilities, the athletic association must make its own way. A dance, sponsored by the yard plumbers, and an employe-produced musical show have benefited the club's treasury.

The whole shipyard sports set-up is a by-product of the Progressive club—an organization composed of all assistant foremen and quartermen in the company's various departments.

At a Progressive club meeting, Tom Boggs and Jim Meade told other members that they could build a good baseball team if the group would sponsor them financially. And the Progressives did the original idea one better, offering to back a complete sports program.

Thus the association was formed. Elected officers were: W. T. Eken as president, Jack Eppes as secretary-treasurer, Fred Mintz as advertising manager and Earl Garrett and Cathed Bullifant as advisors.

Only fly-in-the-ointment so far is the group's treasury. Contributions made at league games, according to Mr. Eken, won't even pay for broken bats and lost balls. Members hope that gate receipts may solve that problem.

But there is no doubt about the good work the Shipyard Athletic association is doing. After preliminary worries are cleared and other activities added, it will be ideal for the men who keep 'em launching.

Sports Carbon: Sports Editor Tom Kinney of the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer cites just another of those little things that cause scribes to die young or become mental patients.

"In what round did Max Baer knock out Carnera?" asked a voice on the telephone. "In the eleventh," replied Thomas. Snerled the VOTT: "You answered that mighty quick. Don't you think you oughta look it up?"

"Listen," said the writer, "I happened to be at the ringside in New York and saw Baer win the fight in the eleventh round."

"Well, well," came back the voice, "did you ever see Billy Conn fight his daddy-in-law?"

PANTHER BATTLES PINTO IN OPENER AT THALIAN HALL

Cowboy Luttrell And Sailor Hill Will Meet In Main Event

"One of the best programs yet" is the way Bert Causey, promoter, describes the wrestling card to be presented tonight at Thalian Hall.

The promoter was elated over the prospects of an action-packed program and said some of the best wrestlers who have ever appeared here will participate on the program.

The men, he said, are big, powerful and fast, a combination that augurs well for a balanced card in which there will be plenty of action and roughness.

The Black Panther meets Stanley Pinto, Chicago, in the first match, scheduled for the best two out of three falls with a sixty minute time limit.

Cowboy Luttrell, of Texas, and Sailor Barto Hill, of Nebraska, clash in the main event, scheduled for the best two out of three falls with a ninety minute time limit.

The Luttrell-Hill affair is a return engagement, and according to the promoter, it will be unquestionably one of the roughest, toughest matches ever witnessed in the local ring.

Al Massey, an expert on wrestling rules, has been engaged as referee.

Doors at Thalian hall will open at 7:15 o'clock with the first event going on at 8:40 o'clock.

RAY ROBINSON DEFEATS SERVO

Forced To Go All Out, However, To Take Rousing 10-Round Bout

NEW YORK, May 28.—(P)—Ray Robinson ran his all-victorious string to 121 triumphs in a row as a fighter tonight, but he never came closer to having it broken than he did in going all out to take a ten-round decision from Marty Servo before a roaring, thrilled crowd in Madison Square Garden.

Robinson weighed 144, Servo 143. As a matter of fact, on the Associated Press score card, Robinson won by the mere margin of one round. And this margin might have been the second, in which both fighters were guilty of hitting low, but for which Referee Billy Cavanaugh penalized only Servo with loss of the round.

After the verdict was announced, the booing was so loud that Announcer Harry Baughn was unable to make himself heard sufficiently over the public address system to introduce the next fight.

And, though Referee Cavanaugh took the second round away from the little Coast Guardsman from Schenectady, N. Y., without first warning him, he took the trouble of warning the skinny Harlem hammer for using his head in the final round — and then did not penalize him.

DODGERS BLAST BOSTON BRAVES

Brooklyn Wins 6 To 4 And Chalks Up Sixth Victory Over Stengel Nine

BOSTON, May 28.—(P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers continued their mastery over the Boston Braves today, chalking up their sixth success of the season at the expense of Casey Stengel's men with a 6 to 4 decision.

In running their victory string to four straight, however, the Dodgers had to put down a ninth inning rally as the Braves sought to break the jinx that has kept them from winning a single game from the league leaders this year.

KIRKWOOD TIES NELSON ON 32ND TO THROW SCARE

Quarter Finals Are Scheduled For Today On Seaview Course

By GAYLE TALBOT
ATLANTIC CITY, May 28.—(P)—Outside of one brief scare in the afternoon, when the veteran Joe Kirkwood made an amazing rally to tie Byron Nelson on the 32nd hole, the P. G. A. championships ran their pre-determined, unruffled course through the second round of match play at the Seaview club today.

The eight survivors who will square off in tomorrow's quarter finals all were fairways big shots. The little fellows who came here hopefully all were cleaned out and on the way back home, more convinced than ever that the modern money game is a closed corporation.

Tomorrow's line up will look familiar to the golf fan: Jimmy Demaret plays Craig Wood; Sammy Snead plays Ed Dudley; Byron Nelson meets Harry Cooper, and Ben Hogan will endeavor to send Corporal Jim Turnesa back to the army.

Including in the eight were the National Open champion, Wood; the Augusta masters' king, Nelson; the holder of the Vardon trophy and leading money winner, Hogan; the man who once took eight strokes on the 72nd hole of an Open championship, Sammy Snead, and the Argentine Open champion, Demaret.

Nelson, the tournament favorite, must have been the most startled man in New Jersey when Kirkwood, the 45-year-old trick shot star caught him and looked him in the eye on the 32nd green. Nelson had been 4-up at lunch and appeared to have the match safely sailed away. And then he started fittered strokes away while Kirkwood settled down to par-shattering golf.

At any rate, the jolt appeared to have done Nelson good. He gathered himself to shoot birdies both on the 33rd and 34th holes and to send Kirkwood tumbling eventually, 2 and 1. Nelson has no confidence in his present form, though, and predicted today that Hogan and Snead would be the finalists.

Hogan, whose mile-long drives make him particularly effective on the short Seaview course, continued to shoot superlative golf in crushing Ky Laffoon today by 9 and 8. The dark, sober little artist from Hershey, Pa., blazed around in 66 to place Laffoon 8-down at lunch time, and he had a 35—one (Continued on Page Ten)
