SURSUM CORDA
 "LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS"
 By Wallace L. Wolvertson, Ph.D.
 Chaplain
 Officer Candidate School

"Like a mighty army moves the Church of God; Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod; We are not divided, all one body we, One in hope and doctrine, one in charity."
 "Onward Christian Soldiers," is, naturally enough, the favorite hymn of the armed forces. It has been played frequently by military bands as troops leave training centers to go to places where things are really happening. On Sunday, last, it was the closing hymn in the Chapel, and visitors remarked that they had never heard it sung in such a fine manner.
 I do not believe that the above stanza can be sung with the degree of sincerity that it is sung by our men in uniform, particularly the life. "We are not divided, all one body we." Denominationalism, which has succeeded in breaking the Body of Christ, has little place in the Army. In the face of the urgency which is felt by Christian soldiers, in view of the peril to their own lives and when confronted with the possible destruction of so much that is dear to their loved ones, there is little time for "—ists", "—ans", or "—ians".
 I wonder if they will have much patience with sectarian quibbling when the war is over and they return to take their places in the community. These men are to be the leading Churchmen of tomorrow. Today they are essentially "One in hope and doctrine, one in charity." Danger and hardship have made them so. They are finding the realities in our Blessed Religion; and having found them they are not likely to suffer silently those things which divide the Church. 5 is opposed by Richard T. Fountain of Rocky Mount for the Democratic nomination.

 Stoner W. Klutz and Sam J. Morris are the candidates for the Republican nomination.
 Less than 25 absentee ballots, available to men in the armed services, will be cast in tomorrow's election, H. G. Carney, chairman of the county board of elections, estimated Friday.
 If runoffs are necessitated in any of the races, the second primary will be held on June 27, Mr. Carney said.

STATE VOTES TODAY
RALEIGH, N. C., May 29—(AP)—North Carolinians—Fewer in numbers and comparatively disinterested—will go to the polls tomorrow to cast their ballots in a war-affected off-year primary.
 The state board of elections has had about a million ballots printed, of which approximately one-third are republican, but nobody in the office expects that all of them will be used.
 War and its accompanying diversions have simply put the dampener on politics for the duration.
 In most instances, incumbent candidates have no opposition, and where there are fights, the hopefuls have ranted before only partially-interested citizens.
 The most exciting battle is down east, where incumbent Herbert C. Bonner of Washington is campaigning to keep his first district seat in the U. S. House of Representatives from either Marvin K. Blount or Jack Edwards, both of whom are from Greenville.
 Senator Josiah W. Bailey of Raleigh has waged a rather stimulating campaign by remote control against former Lieutenant Governor Richard T. Fountain of Rocky Mount, who has criticized the senator in caustic terms for Bailey's alleged opposition to the Roosevelt administration.
 Fountain has waged a fairly active campaign, declaring that Bailey has opposed the president on both domestic and foreign policies, but the public has shown little reaction to the campaign—even for this all-important position.
 In the new and populous tenth Congressional district, veteran Cameron Morrison of Charlotte, former governor and senator, is attempting to regain his political prestige in a race against John A. McRae, also of Charlotte.
 The fifth district is the scene of another fairly exciting contest.

12 CZECHS SLAIN BY NAZI FIRING SQUADS

 prisms from the people of Bohemia and Moravia for Wednesday's attack on Heydrich as he was motor-ing to Berlin just outside Prague.
 The report of Heydrich's death began circulating in Bern. The British radio noted that it had not been confirmed and quoted the German radio as saying his condition was "serious."
 Hours before the report, an exchange telegraph dispatch from Zurich, Switzerland, said a German specialist had been rushed to Prague for an emergency operation. This report said Heydrich's spinal cord and spine were critically injured when three bullets hit him.
 Martial law has been proclaimed in Bohemia and Moravia, and midnight tonight was the deadline for registration of all Czech males over 15.
 While the worst was expected in retaliatory measures, the Czech government here nevertheless called on Czechs in the homeland to resist their Nazi oppressors.
 "There will be no peace and right in the world unless the German crimes are severely punished," said a proclamation issued for broadcasting. "Whoever defies himself by collaboration with the murderous enemy will not escape just punishment." 3 mopping up the Kharkov battleground with the "number of prisoners and amount of booty mounting steadily." Military circles said the Kharkov battle was ended.

RED FORCES REPULSE NAZI TANK CHARGES

 (The German high command also said a Soviet attack on the central front, presumably before Moscow, was repulsed, with some of the attacking Russians encircled.)
 The Russian mid-day communique said a Red unit operating on one unidentified sector of the front threw back a German infantry attack which was supported by tanks and artillery and destroyed five tanks and one armored car. It also said the Germans left hundreds of dead on the battlefield.
 Soldiers on the Leningrad front, the communique said, destroyed several firing positions and mortar batteries and killed about 500 men and officers over a period of several days.
