

CAMP DAVIS NINE NOSES OUT BOTTLED, 1-0

Sports Hodge-Podge BY CARLE HODGE

Outstanding need of sports-seeking service men in and around Wilmington, Lt. Henry A. Johnson told the Second and Orange USO Sports Committee last night, are facilities for individual participation.

They want the chance to play tennis or shoot a game of golf or to take in a baseball game.

As athletics officer at Camp Davis, Lt. Johnson is in a position to know just what the soldiers want. Well, the sports committeemen scratched their respective heads and went to work on tackling their first problem.

It will, however, take more than a good committee or a single organization to solve that problem. Wilmington as a whole must do that.

Golfers, tennis players, fishermen and all other local sportsmen could add to their own pleasure by taking along a service man-guest.

As soon as the new USO committee's organization is complete, some type of system may be worked out through which the civilian and soldier or sailor sportsmen may become acquainted.

While on the subjects of Davis and athletics, Lt. Johnson is at work on an outstanding grid slate for the fighting AA's, which he hopes will make up for the fact that local fans won't be able to drive long distances to see football games this coming fall.

Besides some good out-of-town contests, the post eleven will definitely play Camp Lee and several North State conference teams here.

The lieutenant has his fingers crossed on the Sunday-Admission fights because the larger crowds would mean better opposition for his gridmen.

Shipyard Beats Goldsboro All-Stars, 6 To 5

BOATMEN STAB HOST RALLIES TO WIN CONTEST

Progressives Come From Behind In Eighth To Slip Past Opponents

BY R. J. POWELL GOLDSBORO, June 3.—Stabbing two desperate Goldsboro last ditch rallies, Wilmington's Shipyard Progressive baseball club scored a thrilling 6 to 5 triumph over the Goldsboro All-Stars here this afternoon.

Trailing going into the eighth round, by two markers, the Cape Fear league leaders came to life and pushed two across to get back into the ball game. Hits by Jordan, McCord, and Davis put the Wilmington club out in front in the tenth chapter after a fast twin killing had sunk a base loaded Goldsboro threat in the ninth stanza.

With three valuable hits out of five attempts, McCord showed the visitors the way with the stick and Marvin Sansone and Southerland were the batting stars for the locals, getting six blows between them. Southerland accounted for three of the losers runs. Deserving much credit also is slender Claude King, former high school hurler who held the slugging shipbuilders in check after a bad start until the game winning eighth.

BOSTON BRAVES BOW CARDS, 4-3

Johnny Sain Stops Bird Rallies As Tribe Scores Early To Win Game

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Behind the masterful relief pitching of Johnny Sain, who stopped three Cardinal rallies, the Boston Braves scored three runs in the first inning and added one in the fifth to defeat the Redbirds, 4 to 3, in an Army-Navy Relief twilight game before a crowd of 11,477 here today.

Twice the Cardinals had the bases loaded with just one out, in the sixth and ninth innings, but each time the Braves erased the threat with sizzling double plays.

Sain got a bit erratic and filled the bags without a hit in the ninth, but then forced Enos Slaughter to line to Max West who stepped on first base for a double play, unassisted, to end the game.

40-MILE SPEED WARNING GIVEN

Officers, Enlisted Men And Civilians Told To Comply With Order

All officers, enlisted men and civilian employees at Camp Davis have been warned by Col. Oscar C. Warner, Training Center Executive, to comply with the President's request for a 40-mile speed limit.

Col. Warner pointed out that some members of Camp Davis have been habitually exceeding this speed limit. He stated that the camp rationing officer has made arrangements to secure a record of offenders which will be considered when speeders make application for tires, recaps, and tubes.

The limit is being exceeded in that between Wilmington and Camp Davis.

Col. Warner's action is in accordance with War Department policy as outlined recently in a letter from Secretary Stimson to the governor of Alabama.

The governor referred to difficulties incurred in enforcing his state's 40-mile speed limit caused by Army officers driving private cars who claimed excessive speeds were called for by times set in their orders.

Mr. Stimson replied that local speed limits must be observed by all Army personnel driving private or official vehicles. Orders to that effect have been issued by all commands.

Chicubs Stop New York Victory Spree, 6 To 2

CHICAGO, June 3.—Claude Passeau earned his eighth victory of the year and stopped a four-game winning streak for the New York Yankees today as the Chicago Cubs triumphed 6 to 2 on the suspension of a grand slam homer by Russ Russell in the first inning.

Passeau was touched for eight hits, one more than the Bruins made off four New York hurlers, but the veteran righthander kept all the Giants in check except Willard Marshall, who made three hits to total 15 hits in his last six games since coming out of a slump.

Harrington Baffles Post Batters But AA's Win On Lone Tally

By SGT. RED GRAHAM The Camp Davis AA's nose out the Pepsi-Cola Cape Fear league nine 1 to 0 in a closely-contested Legion stadium exhibition game yesterday afternoon.

Highlight of the contest was the slow curve pitching of the Bottlers' Monk Harrington. Clad in his old Wilmington Pirate uniform, Harrington baffled the soldier batters with his effective control.

So effective was Monk that he had the Davis men swinging on that they were hitting the ball where he wanted them to. Most of the balls were hit to the Pepsi-Cola's third-baseman, Schmidt, who handled the ball eleven times without an error.

Fast fielding and perfect throws by the Pepsi-Cola outfielder cut off two Camp Davis runs at the plate.

The Pepsi-Cola's reached Bob Vaughn and Lefty Eichelberger for two hits apiece in their total of four hits off the post moundsmen. While the Soldiers managed to score three runs, they allowed for nine hits.

Bob Vaughn continued his winning streak, bringing the Detroit Tigers farm-hand's record up to four wins against no defeats. During the time Lefty Eichelberger tossed them up to the Pepsi's he managed to strike out six of the twelve men that faced him and allowed only two hits.

Camp Davis faces the Whiteville All Stars baseball team at Camp Davis today at 4 p. m. The battery for the game for Camp Davis will be Bill Martin, pitching, and Belcastro catching. Davis will also play host to the Amoco nine on Saturday afternoon. The soldiers now have won five games and lost one.
