

Miss Gillikin, Hubert Bozarth Marry At Home

MARSHALLBURG, June 6.—Miss Belva Gillikin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gillikin, and Hubert G. Bozarth of Silverpoint, Mrs. J. D. Bozarth of Silverpoint, Tenn., were united in marriage Saturday, May 30 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in a lovely ceremony solemnized by the Rev. L. E. Sawyer in the presence of relatives and friends.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Ruth Wooten, sister of the bride, played "The Rosary" and accompanied Mrs. Charles Hassell of Beaufort, singing "Because" Hardelet. During the ceremony "Evening Star" was softly played. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Kathrine Gillikin was her sister's maid-of-honor and only attendant. She was gowned in heavenly blue organdie with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses showered with forget-me-nots.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown fashioned of white satin made on princess lines with lace inserts in the bodice, and a sweetheart neckline. The long sleeves came to a point over her hand and the graceful skirt fell into a short train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was crowned with a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids tied with satin.

She wore a corsage of orchids from the bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth will be at home in Jacksonville, N. C., after the first of July.

Museum Of Art Open To Public Throughout Day

The Wilmington WPA Museum of Art will be open again this afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. These Sunday hours are being observed all this month due to the popularity of the current exhibition. The annual exhibition of Wilmington Artists has always been one of the best attended shows at the Museum of Art every year. This, the fourth show is one of the best groups of paintings to be assembled.

Of added interest is the work by several soldiers at Camp Javis and of officer's wives. This is the final exhibition at the Museum of Art and will remain in the gallery until June 30. Many visitors have expressed regret at the necessity of closing the museum, officials feel that there is no hope of obtaining the necessary financial support at present.

The gallery is open daily from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., no charge for admission and the public is cordially invited.

All Dressed up with no place to Go?

Yes She has places to go but She is patriotic!

Her husband is a defense worker, he works for Victory in overalls, but at home he wants his wife and family to have comforts and refinements of the life they knew in peacetime. And because of this they are patriotically conserving tires and gasoline, they will live more at home and of course entertain more. That's why they are looking for style and comfort as well as price in the furniture they choose.
