Ketchum-Bush Ceremony Held In Local Church

Miss Helen Jeannette Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter Bush, and Harold Bishop Ketchum, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ketchum, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, June 6, at 4 o'clock in the Fifth Avenue Methodist church in a lovely ceremony solemnized by the Rev. Chancie D. Barcliff, pastor of the church, in the presence of friends and relatives.

The altar was banked with palms and cybidium ferns interspersed with arrangement of white lilies. Tall cathedral tapers burned in seven-branch candelabra on either side.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Oscar DuRant, who sang "Because" by D'Hardelot and "At Dawning" by Cadman. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Fowler, church organist. The traditional wedding march from Lohengrin by Wagner was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride chose as her matron-of-honor, Mrs. Thomas Skipper, Jr., who was gowned in a dress of pale pink marquisette with fitted bodice and full skirt. Miss Lucile Parker, maid-of-honor, wore a dress of pale yellow marquisette, made on identical lines as that of the matron-of-honor. Both attendants wore flowers in their hair to match their dresses. They carried bouquets of mixed spring flowers tied with ribbons.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was charming in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned along princess lines, featuring a heart-shaped neckline, long sleeves coming to points over the hands and a full skirt ending in a court train. The bride's veil was of bridal illusion which was draped from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom was attended by Owen Jones of Charlotte, as best man. Ushers were Thomas Skipper, Jr., and Whit Benton of Wilmington.

Mrs. Bush, mother of the bride was attired in lavender lace and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Ketchum, mother of the bridegroom, wore a lovely printed silk and a corsage of pink roses.

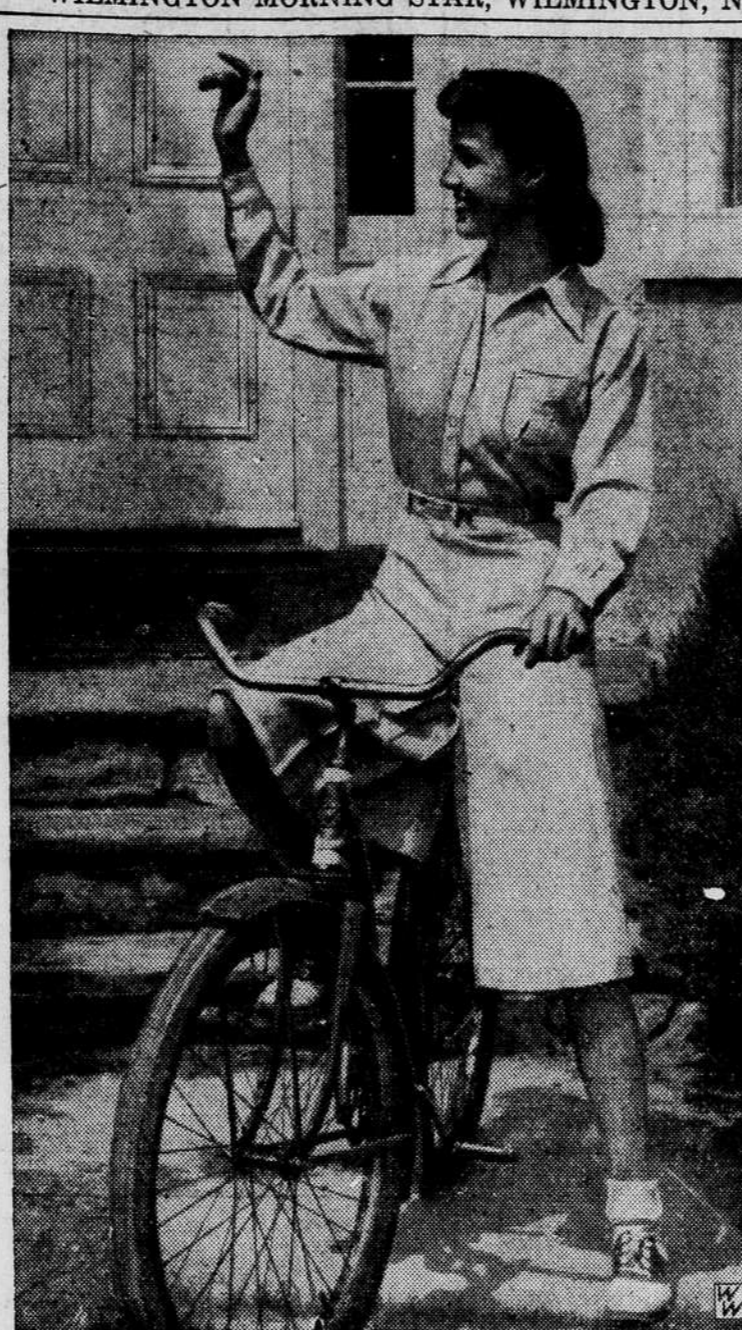

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Bowls filled with white carnations, gladioli and other mixed flowers were arranged throughout the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum left for a short wedding trip. Mrs. Ketchum wore for traveling a silk suit of pale blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Ketchum is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hunter Bush of Wilmington. She is a graduate of New Hanover High school and studied dancing in New York for two years. For the past year, she taught dancing in Raleigh.

Mr. Ketchum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bishop Ketchum, Sr., of Mount Holly. He is a graduate of North Carolina State college and is now connected with the Badin Aluminum Plant in Badin.

Among the out-of-town guests here were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bishop Ketchum, Sr., of Mount Holly, Miss Dorothy Vereen of Raleigh, and Owen Jones of Charlotte.

These Quick Meat Dishes Help Reduce Kitchen Duty

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Service Staff Writer

Every housewife welcomes quick meat dishes which save her time in the hot summer kitchen. With so many women now busy in war activities, main dishes which can be prepared quickly and inexpensively are especially needed.

Meat Croquettes
Two cups ground cooked or canned meat, 1 cup mashed potatoes or boiled rice, gravy or milk, onion, parsley, salt, and pepper, 1 egg beaten with 1 tablespoon water, dry sifted bread crumbs.

Mix ground meat with mashed potatoes or rice. Moisten slightly with gravy or milk (tomato juice, if desired). Season to taste with onion, parsley, salt and pepper. Mold into croquette shapes. Dip croquettes into beaten egg, roll in bread crumbs, and stand long enough to let the coating dry somewhat. Fry in deep fat to a golden brown. Remove and drain on a sheet of ungalvanized paper.

Southern Hash
Cut cooked left-over meat in small pieces and brown it in fat. Dice raw or cooked potatoes, slice an onion and a green pepper, and brown with the meat. Add gravy or meat broth (or 1 or 2 bouillon cubes dissolved in water). Cook slowly on top of stove, or bake in oven until top is browned.

Panned Cabbage and Corned Beef
Three tablespoons fat, 12 cups shredded cabbage, 2 cups corned beef separated into small pieces, salt, pepper, vinegar.

Heat fat in large pan. Add shredded cabbage, cover to keep in steam, and cook 10 to 15 minutes, stirring thoroughly. Add corned beef and heat thoroughly. Season to taste with salt, pepper, and vinegar.

TOMORROW'S MENU BREAKFAST: Sliced oranges, coddled eggs, whole-wheat toast, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Creamed asparagus on toast, hot enriched biscuits, apple sauce, ginger-snaps, tea, milk.

DINNER: Panned cabbage and corned beef, boiled potatoes, enriched bread, butter-scotch pudding, coffee, milk.
