Maj. Gen. Frederick H. Smith yesterday urged personnel of Camp Davis to purchase war bonds that-'we can acquire an earlier and more glorious victory." He asked that "everybody from bottom to top" cooperate in the war bond drive.

General Smith said "Let me urge upon you two things: first that you are with the colors and prepared to give all for your country. can set the pace for others in the purchase of bonds; second, that war savings bonds are an excellent investment.

"When you are back home after the war, these savings bonds will
