

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

GIVING OUT THE CANVAS—With a stiff breeze filling out their balloon-like spinnaker sails these racing craft compete in one of a series of Los Angeles Yacht club events. Left to right: The Wahini sailed by Willis Boyd, and Chalupita with Kenneth Davis.

DANCE OF FLIGHT—Like planes sweeping in for a landing, three Hanya Holm dancers soar through the air and then down to earth on the grass at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, Colo. They are interpreting the arts and war on a fine arts program.

SARONG SUIT—Marilyn Miller wears this eye-catching sarong suit on the strand at Long Beach, Calif. Material is South Sea flowered batik. Guatemalan design hat and cape top it off.

PORTRAIT OF A HERO—Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow (above), chairman of the New York U.S.O. women's committee, unveils this portrait of Capt. Colin Kelly, Jr., which was painted for the United States Military academy by Bradford Lambert (right). The portrait was hung in a New York City art gallery, where the admissions charged went into the U.S.O. war fund.

UNCLE SAM'S AIRCRAFT CARRIER SARATOGA—The U.S.S. Saratoga (above) was launched in 1925 as a battle cruiser. As a result of the Washington naval conference it was converted into a carrier and relaunched in 1928, a 33,000 ton vessel.

BROADWAY'S BAD BOYS—Vincent Price (left) and Boris Karloff (right), who hold killer roles in Broadway plays, induct Joseph Schildkraut, who acts similarly in new play.

ANGRY—After surviving a torpedoing Capt. Angus Shaw, a Scotsman, said: "I'd give the teeth out of my head (they're of the store variety) if they'd give me something to hunt those submarines with."

IRISH—Competing for the title "Miss Irish Channel" who will reign at the Turkey Bowl football classic next Thanksgiving, Miss Edith Mae Rudge of New Orleans poses for critics.

MAMA PENGUIN ON GUARD—Mama penguin, "Edith," pushes her baby blackfoot penguin into a corner of their hut and turns to protect it from photographers at the Bronx zoo, New York.

BANANA FELT—A perfect foil for dark or bright spectator sports frocks is this banana felt fedora. Trimmings are apple green crown-sash and gray quill. Ear clips are diamonds.

SKY LEVIATHAN—This is a drawing of Glenn L. Martin company's proposed 250,000 pound flying ship. The design calls for the ship to carry 102 passengers each with 80 pounds of luggage, plus 25,000 pounds of cargo from New York to London or Hong Kong.