

Betty Cordon Weds Private R. S. Saalfeld

Nation's No. One Debutante Is Granddaughter Of W. E. Powell Of Wilmington

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Windley Cordon of 1070 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty Green Cordon, to Pvt. Robert S. Saalfeld, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutton Saalfeld of Akron, O., on March 23.

The bride was graduated from the Cathedral School of Saint Mary in Garden City, Long Island, last year. She made her debut last September in Raleigh, and also at an afternoon reception in New York at the home of her parents on December 7 for friends of the family.

Mrs. Saalfeld attended the Debutante Assemblies at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel on January 1, and was chairman of the debutante committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution annual ball. She has been attending the Child Education Foundation this winter and recently has completed a nurse's aid course. She is a descendant of General Nathaniel Green and of William Cordon, who received an original grant from the Lord Proprietors to settle in North Carolina in 1729.

Private Saalfeld was graduated from the Hill school in 1938 and the Princeton university during his senior year to enlist in the Air Corps of the United States Army. He is a member of the Princeton University Cottage club, the Triangle club, and the Princeton Triangles. At present he is located at Maxwell Field, N. Y.

The bride is the granddaughter of W. E. Powell, 212 Walnut street, city, and spent several weeks with her grandfather last fall. She, with her family, has summered at Wrightsville Beach for a number of years and is a popular member of the beach's social contingent. 4

MISS TAYLOR

MISS GARRET

MRS. THOMPSON

MRS. KETCHUM

Hunt-Delamar Wedding Held In Local Church

Lively June Wedding Solemnized During Week In St. Paul's Episcopal Church

St. Paul's Episcopal church in Wilmington was the scene of a lively June wedding Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Eise Dawson Delamar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selden Delamar, became the bride of George Franklin Hunt, Jr., of Wilmington, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin Hunt of this city. The Rev. Alexander Miller, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, assisted by the Rev. William S. Danforth, performed the impressive ceremony.

The church was beautifully arranged with seven-branch candelabra centering the altar and flanked with palms and cut flowers. An arrangement of traditional wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Lila W. Head, pianist, and Mrs. Eric Norden, violinist. Miss Bronson sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage.

She wore a gown of white slipper satin made with fitted bodice and full skirt and ending in a circular train. The sweetheart neckline was (Continued on Page Twelve)

Rainbow Girls Plan Special Meet Monday

Reports Of North Carolina Grand Assembly Will Be Heard At Session

Wilmington Assembly No. 12 of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls will hold a special meeting in the Masonic Temple Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Reports of the annual Divine Service of the order, held in St. Matthew's Lutheran church, will be made; also, reports from the delegates attending Carolinas' grand assembly, held in High Point.

Many Wilmington girls attended this grand session and many honors were conferred on this assembly. Miss Peggy Rogers, worthy advisor of Wilmington Assembly, held the station of Grand Sister of Love; Miss Elizabeth Davis acted as Grand Confidante; Miss Frances Heidt, Past Worthy Advisor of Wilmington Assembly, was Grand Confidante Observer. Miss Frances Heidt gave a splendid report of her correspondence as Grand Rep. (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Tar Heel Girls State Opens Annual Session In Greensboro

GREENSBORO, June 13.—One hundred and 71 future citizens of North Carolina will arrive on the campus of the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina Sunday afternoon to attend the third annual Tar Heel Girls State. The young students of government are coming in second in a week's study first hand of what makes the wheels of democracy turn.

Greensboro leads the state in enrollees for the event, with 13 delegates, but coming in second is Charlotte, with nine representatives. Other towns out in front, according to advanced registration for Girls State, are: Newton, seven; Burlington, seven; Raleigh, six; Albemarle, six; Winston-Salem, six; Lumberton, six; Monroe, six; Salisbury, five; Fuquay Springs, Hamlet, Concord and Belmont, four each.

Sending three delegates each are Reidsville, Forest City, Wadesboro, Plymouth, Fayetteville, and Durham. Two delegates will come from each of the following: Can-

Health Meeting Slated Monday At Wrightsville

All women of the Wrightsville Sound community are invited to attend a meeting of the Health Defense league at the home of Mrs. Frank Harrill on Summer Rest, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. An interesting motion picture dealing with nutrition will be shown.

Dinner Party Slated Tonight At Clubhouse

The Cape Fear Country club will be the scene of the semi-monthly buffet supper party tonight for members and their guests. Supper will be served from 7 until 9 o'clock for those making their reservations before noon Saturday.

Duplin County Cousins, Nearing Century Mark, Tell Of Civil War

By BESSIE F. JOHNSON ROSEHILL, June 13 — "Aunt Sarah", 92 years old Sunday June 14, and "Uncle Bryan", 91 the coming October, first-cousins and last survivors of two closely connected Duplin county families, can tell good stories about the Civil War, dogs, fox-hunting and fiddling. Both Mrs. Sarah Wells ("Aunt Sarah") and Bryan Franklyn Williams ("Uncle Bryan") now live with their nephew, Daniel Williams, in the interesting old Williams' homestead a few miles west of Rosehill. Three sisters and one brother of Mrs. Wells married three brothers and one sister of "Uncle Bryan" all first-cousins. "Uncle Bryan" is a son of the late Bryan Newkirk Williams and Nancy Wells Williams, the latter having been a sister of Mrs. Wells' father, Mrs.

Margaret White, W. Platt Yaple To Marry Soon

Of interest to society in the city will be the following announcement today: Mr. and Mrs. Lowell White announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret Rogers, to Wellington Platt Yaple, son of Rev. and Mrs. George Samuel Yaple of Detroit. The wedding to take place Friday, June 19.

Weekly Baby Clinic Planned Wednesday

The weekly baby clinic of North Carolina Serois will be held Wednesday morning from 9 until 10 o'clock in the Serois clubhouse, 116 North Third street. Mrs. Ida B. Holton will be present to assist.

Executive Board Of State Music Club Announced

Two Wilmingtonians Listed In Organization, Mrs. Norden, Mrs. Humphries

By LOUISE YOUNG WORKMAN Mrs. Maurice Hongiman, of Gastonia, president of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs, has announced the members of the organization's executive board who will serve as officers and chairmen of various federation departments during the season 1942-43.

More than 50 of the state's musical leaders are included in the list just completed. "With these outstanding men and women at the helm of musical enterprise," said Mrs. Hongiman, "music in North Carolina shall not only survive during the world crisis, but will find countless opportunities to aid the cause of democracy."

Past presidents of the state federation are named as honorary presidents. They include Mrs. A. C. Orndorff, Charlotte, founder and first president; Mrs. Eugene Davis, Raleigh; Mrs. J. S. Corwell, Raleigh; and Mrs. W. A. Harper, Black Mountain. The late Mrs. Frank S. Smith of Asheville was honorary president at the time of her death in April. Officers of the organization are: Mrs. Honigman, president; Mrs. J. K. Pfohl, Winston-Salem, first vice-president; Mrs. George Coggins, Biltmore, second vice-president; Mrs. James D. Mason, Charlotte, third vice-president; Mrs. Ray L. Morris, Raleigh, recording secretary; Mrs. J. J. Schilthuis, Enka, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. L. Riddle, Sanford, treasurer; Mrs. Parker Vickery, Fayetteville, auditor; Mrs. A. C. Orndorff, Charlotte, historian; Mrs. C. R. Wharton, Greensboro, parliamentarian; Mrs. Robert S. Carroll, Asheville, custodian; Mrs. I. M. Meekins, Elizabeth City, chaplain. Directors of the state's six districts (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Miss Hamilton Becomes Bride Of Mr. Batson

Wedding Held In Atkinson Baptist Church Saturday Afternoon, June 6

BURGAU, June 13.—In a candle-light ceremony Miss Helen Elizabeth Hamilton, became the bride of Harvey Lee Batson, Saturday afternoon, June 6 at 5:30 o'clock in the Baptist church in Atkinson, with the Rev. E. W. Pate, of Wilmington, officiating at the ceremony.

As guests assembled, Miss Margaret Lee Betts, of Burgaw, pianist, and Mrs. R. P. Clark, of Burgaw, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Betts played Schubert's "Serenade"; "The Evening Star"; Wagner; and "Liebestraum"; Liszt; Mrs. Clark sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told"; Stultz and "Because." D'Hardelot. As the wedding party approached the altar, the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin was played. As the vows were spoken, "To A Wild Rose" Macdowell, was softly played. After the minister's prayer, Mrs. Clark sang "O Perfect Love," Barnby.

The rostrum of the church was banked with pines and southern (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Fort Benning Chapel Scene Of Marriage

Miss Mary Nisbet Of Wilmington, Attends Bride As Maid-Of-Honor

FORT BENNING, Ga., June 13.—The chapel of Fort Benning was the scene of a quiet wedding Friday evening, June 5, at 6 o'clock when Miss Sally Davidson Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown of Manhattan, Kansas, became the bride of Lieut. James Worth Linn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Linn also of Manhattan, Kansas.

Capt. J. A. Pollock, chaplain of the post, officiated at the ceremony.

Miss Mary Nisbet, of Wilmington, N. C., was the bride's maid-of-honor and only attendant. The bridegroom was attended by Lieut. Neal M. Jenkins of Manhattan as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was held at the Ralston hotel in Columbus, Ga. Mrs. Linn is the sister of Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Murray, formerly of Wilmington, N. C.