Miss Alice Page And Thomas Noe Wed

(Continued from Page Eleven) Anne's lace, gardenias and ferns were used on the altar and in the chancel windows. Tall tapers, burning in the George II candelabra, added a note of solemnity and beauty.

The bride entered the church with the Rev. A. C. D. Noe, by whom she was given in marriage. The bridegroom entered from the side door, joining the bride at the chancel rail. A period of nuptial music was rendered prior to the ceremony by Walter R. Uoe, Jr., of Macon, Ga., and the proverbial wedding marches were used as professional and recessional.

Mrs. Noe is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Page of Trenton, and for the past year has been employed in Wilmington. She wore a dress of blue crepe, with navy and white accessories, and her corsage was of talisman roses.

Mr. Noe is the son of the Rev and Mrs. W. R. Noe of Wilmington. He was educated in the Wilmington schools, and attended East Carolina Teachers college, Greenville. For the past six months he has been employed in the Wilmington shipyard. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Wilmington.
