Covenant Church Scene Of Lovely Wedding Friday

Miss Eugenia Southerland, Leon Franklyn Jones Have Morning Wedding

The Church of the Covenant in Wilmington was the scene of a lovely wedding Friday morning, June 26, at 11 o'clock when Miss Eugenia Carr Southerland became the bride of Leon Franklyn Jones.

The Rev. J. H. Whitmore, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony and a program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Horace Pearsall, church organist.

The church was beautifully decorated with Kentia palms, cybotium ferns and garlands of Legotium ferns.

Miss Southerland was escorted up the aisle by her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore for her wedding a gown of Velveret mousseline over ivory satin with fitted bodice.

The full-length veil of ivory illusion matching the gown, with heart-shaped coronet was caught at either side with tiny clusters of flowers from her bridal bouquet.

Miss Anne Woodbury, maid-of-honor, and Miss Hattie Schaefer as bridesmaid wore identical gowns of embroidered white organdy with fitted bodice.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, William M. Jones, of Livingston, Va., and groomsmen were Frank X. Reisner and R. J. Cassidy of Wilmington.

Mrs. Southerland, mother of the bride, wore navy sheer with natural accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Immediately following the ceremony Misses Katie and Ethel Mann, aunts of the bride, entertained the wedding party and relatives and out-of-town guests at a wedding breakfast at the Governor Dudley.

The bride was honored by Miss Anne Woodbury and Miss Hattie Schaefer at a luncheon at the Governor Dudley and Mr. and Mrs. Exum Leroy Southerland entertained the bridal party and a few close friends at an informal reception Thursday evening.

For travel Mrs. Jones wore a green and white dress with green jacket, white accessories and a white orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

Girls, Hurry To Washington, U. S. Needs You

Office Of War Information Says, There Are More Dates In Capital Now

CLEVELAND, June 27.—(AP)—There now are more dates in Washington, the Office of War Information informed stenographers today.

"Girls," the OWI urged, "if you knew how badly the United States of America needed your help in Washington, you'd go there."

"Anyone who can operate a typewriter at even 35 words per minute, or who can do clerical work, can serve his nation there as surely as a soldier."

"And — take the word of F. H. Trimmer, acting personnel officer here—the Washington scene has changed until now there are more dates, and it is easier to find a place to live."

"Mr. Trimmer, who has come here recently from the capital, admits that Washington still has its drawbacks as a place to live because buses and street cars are crowded and the shops are filled to capacity."

"The wedding will take place July 1, in the Ebenezer Lutheran church."
