

Southern Choral School Planned At Woman's College

GREENSBORO, June 27.—Plans are rapidly being completed for the fourth annual Southern Choral school to be held at the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro from Monday, July 20, through Friday, July 31.

Miss Grace Van Dyke More, head of the department of music education in the school of music, will be head of the program, with Paul B. Onley, head of the voice department of the college, and William Powell Twaddell, director of music in the Durham city schools, serving as assistants.

The opening night of the Choral school will feature a concert by Mr. Onley, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Onley, instructor in piano, at the college. Mr. Onley will be in charge of a second program on Sunday evening, July 26, when a musical vesper service is scheduled. The climactic program of the Choral school will be a concert by the children's group choruses directed by Twaddell for the institute.

Aside from these special performances, the school will be concerned with intensive study and work in choral methods and procedures, voice production and vocal problems, baton technique and choral conducting. The children's choruses will include 50 elementary school singers in one group and 45 voice enthusiasts from junior and senior high schools in the second group.

Registration for last year included more than 50 teachers and conductors from 10 southern states. 2 Edwin Bennett of New York isn't worrying about the tire and gasoline shortage. He may attract attention driving along in his 1912 Ford, but he gets 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline and his obsolete tires are not rationed.

D. A. R. Society Plans Daily Prayer Service

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Throughout the entire nation Daughters of the American Revolution this week are inaugurating a program of daily prayer for the protection of those serving in the defense of America and for the welfare of the nation.

A letter has been sent from the president general, Mrs. William H. Pouch, to every state regent in the Society requesting that she ask that all members of her state devote at least five minutes at noon each day for prayer or meditation. Mrs. Pouch also requests that the exact hour be noted—12 o'clock Eastern War Time and at the corresponding hour in other zones—11 o'clock Central—10 o'clock Mountain and 9 o'clock Pacific War Time. It is her conviction that the united and concentrated prayers of over 160,000 women must surely be heard and answered.

In her letter Mrs. Pouch said: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

"Believing so firmly in this thought it is my earnest prayer that every Daughter of the American Revolution, in order to attain courage and strength, will join in united daily prayer with her fellow members. Please from this day forward, even to the last of our days on earth, give at least five minutes at the noon hour to meditation and prayer."

"Let us always give thanks for our many blessings, pray for divine guidance, and for the protection of those engaged in the service and defense of their country that American ideals may be preserved."

The appeal was contained in a release to newspapers by the OWI Cleveland office.

Helen V. Grier, Cpl. R. E. Biddle Wed In Gastonia

The marriage of Miss Helen Vernon Grier and Cpl. Ronald Errington Biddle took place Thursday morning in a private ceremony in the First Presbyterian church of Gastonia.

The couple approached the altar unattended and the service was performed by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. John T. Biddle, pastor of the Enka Baptist church.

A program of wedding music presented by Mrs. Hugh A. Query included "Leibestraum," by Liszt; "Serenade," by Schubert; and "The Rose," by Meyer. "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell, was played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches of Wagner and Mendelssohn were used for the processional and recessional numbers.

Miss Pearl Wilson sang, "Because" by d'Hardelot, just before the bride and groom approached the altar, which was decorated with an informal arrangement of white gladioli.

The bride wore a street length frock of white crepe, and a small flower-trimmed hat of white straw, white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of pink rosebuds and blue forget-me-nots.

The bride's mother was gowned in rose sheer crepe, with a black hat and black accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of flowered pink chiffon, with a white hat and accessories, and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Robert and Harry Grier, brothers of the bride, served as ushers. For traveling, Mrs. Biddle wore a tailored suit in cornflower blue linen with white accessories. After a trip to the mountains, Mrs. Biddle will be at home with her parents in Gastonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon G. Grier of Gastonia. She is a graduate of the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and for several years has been a member of the faculty of the State School for the Blind, at Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a son of the Rev. and Mrs. John T. Biddle of Enka. He is a graduate of Wake Forest college, and is instructor in the Clerical School at Fort Eustis, Va. Prior to his induction into the Army, he was a member of the faculty of the State School for the Blind in Raleigh.
