

CHISOX HAND YANKS DOUBLEHEADER DEFEAT

The SPORTS TRAIL

By Whitney Martin

NEW YORK, (Wide World) June 28.—It's like taking the chaser before the drink, as there are present problems which require undivided attention first, but nevertheless there has been considerable speculation as to what the major league baseball situation will be after the war, particularly as it concerns the lineup of the circuits.

A common idea is that there will be a re-deal of the franchises to include west coast cities, a possibility that has been mentioned before but has never got beyond the stage of soap-box oratory chiefly because when the subject of transportation was brought up the argument ended because there wasn't any argument.

The proponents of a possible re-deal now consider that problem as minor, pointing out that after the war the nation will be just one big pair of wings with a motor hooked on as a result of the present stress on air power and that practically all traveling will be done in hops.

Which may be true, but no matter how far aviation advances you are going to find some fellows, like Babe Phelps, for instance, who don't mind flying as long as they can drag one foot along the ground.

They figure that when the engine stops on a railroad the train doesn't have to hunt a seat and then try to sit on it without breaking anything.

If some of these earthy gents happened to be stars, a club's problem would be obvious, as there is no way of compelling a man to go, or if the club's edict was to go, or else, the player probably would take the hint.

There are west coast towns, notably Los Angeles and San Francisco, which unquestionably could support a major league club, but the problem of infringement on minor league territory also enters the picture.

The question of what clubs to move to new territory also is present. Off and on for years the volunteer moving men have been shifting the Browns around to Milwaukee, or Kansas City or one place or another, but the Browns still are in St. Louis. And very much in the American league this year it might be added.

Don Barnes, Brown Prexy, has been flirting with the idea of a move, as the club can't draw its income in St. Louis. This probably is largely due to its record of recent years, as there was a time when the Browns were the fair-haired club there.

The Phils also might profit by a move, but they'd have to change more than their name and scene of operations, as the club by any other name would smell as sour and unless it improved couldn't be expected to attract anything but flies anywhere.

Naturally west coast cities aren't the only ones that could be affected by a reorganization. Because of their size they are most frequently mentioned, but there are other spots, such as Baltimore, New Orleans, Kansas City, a combination of Minneapolis and St. Paul, and others which are possibilities.

But if they do change the major league map, and in such a way that air travel is necessary, we're liable to see some unusual postponements, such as, for instance, Chicago at San Francisco, postponed: fog at Denver.

N. V. LOSES FIRST TWIN BILL OF YEAR

Ted Lyons Takes First 6-2 Over Ruffing; Sox Capture Second 13-1

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox handed the New York Yankees their first doubleheader defeat of the season today, taking the first game 6 to 2 and pounding out a 13 to 1 decision in the second.

The twin killing, displayed before the city's largest crowd of the season, 38,042, cut the champions' American league lead to five 1/2 games.

In the opener, the patriarch Ted Lyons drew abreast Red Ruffing in lifetime victories with 251 by pitching eight-hit ball while the Sox totaled 14 blows off the veteran Ruffing. Lyons, himself, doubled in two runs and scored a third after singling.

Johnny Humphries coasted to an eight-hit triumph in the nightcap after seven hits, including homers by Don Kolloway and Tom Turner, kayoed Ernie Bonham in the third inning with the Chicagoans leading 6 to 0.

It was the first time Bonham had been batted from the mound since April 24 and only the second time this season. The defeat was his third against nine wins and Ruffing's fourth against seven victories.

Manager Joe McCarthy was confined to his hotel during the games by illness and did not plan to accompany the Yankees to Philadelphia tonight after their ground-traveling western trip in which they dropped nine games and won five. He expected to rejoin them in a day or so.

Phil Rizzuto, the Yanks' regular shortstop, was forced to retire early in the second contest after twisting his knee in the opener when outfielder Taft Wright slid into him in a play at second base. Robert Rolfe, taking over third as Frankie Crosetti shifted to short, made his first appearance on the field in 1942. Later he doubled and singled in three trips.

Lyons' victory was his sixth in 11 games this year. He broke a 1-1 tie with his double in the second and was in complete command after that.

Wright, who posted two singles in the opener, collected a double and three singles in the afterpiece. The Sox shelled Norman Branch, Bonham's successor, with five runs in the fifth with the aid of two errors—one of which was a wild pitch that allowed two runs to come in.

The Chicagoans made their final two runs off Johnny Lindell in the eighth.

92-Pound Shark Hooked At Rich's By Fred Mote
A 92-pound shark was caught by Fred Mote of 2104 Pender street Saturday night in Rich's inlet.
The shark, which is six feet and nine inches long, was landed in a small boat with a 300-yard line and Number 15 reel. It fought about 30 minutes, Mote said.
Mote, who is a member of the New Hanover Fishing club, was a fishing with Hayward Barden and Bill Pate. He has the shark in his front yard.

Red Sox And Indians Split Doubleheader

CLEVELAND, June 28.—(AP)—A pinch single by hurler Chubby Dean in the eighth inning today scored Oriel Hockett to give the Cleveland Indians a 3 to 2 victory and an even break in a doubleheader with Boston's Red Sox. Boston won the first game 8 to 3 before 19,547 fans.

The victory protected the Tribe's claim to third place from Detroit, which also split a twin bill.

Second Shipyard Ring Show Set For Tonight

Boxing is all the rage at the shipyard. The noon hour finds the shipbuilders packed hundreds deep around the practice ring set up at the yard by the Shipyard Athletic association, which tonight at Thalian hall presents its second boxing show.

And according to Plunk Moring, ex-pro fighter and now trainer-matcher for the cards here, a surplus of boxers are training for the matches. One night 45 showed up for a work-out.

Tickets are now being sold at the yard as well as downtown. With interest strong among employes, predictions and wagers on the fights are becoming popular.

Although all fighters in this section are eligible for the bouts, tonight's card is made up entirely of shipyard workers.

Spotlighted match, one of the six planned, will be between Morris Merritt, ex-high school slugger and now in the shipwright department, and Charley Hornaday, a former Army boxer employed in the same department.

Merritt weighs 168, Hornaday 172. Fred Barnhill, 198-pound local Golden Gloves champ, meets 195 pound Len Hair, formerly on the Wake Forest boxing team and now in the welding school.

Claude McCall, a 150-pound Wilmington boy and timekeeper for the North Carolina Shipbuilding company, clashes with Delma Mobley, 149-pound ship's carpenter from Wallace.

First bout is slated for 8:45 o'clock with the hall opening at 7:15. Promoter Bert Causey has arranged several large fans to cool the auditorium.

Bill Johnson, 159-pound riggers department worker, meets Buster Cobb, 158-pounder from the drillers department, in the feature negro bout.

Other negro matches: Alec "Kid" Lewis (155 pounds) vs. Young Foy (154). "T Model" Ford (160) erectors department, vs. "Jumper" Joe Evans (155) erectors department.

SENATORS SWEEP BILL WITH BROWNS
PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—(AP)—Pitching one of the best games of his career Tommy Hughes led the Phils to a 2 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in an exciting 15-inning struggle that gave the Phils a split in a double-header today.

The Cards took the second game, 3 to 1, behind the five-hit pitching of Lon Warneke and Walker Cooper's hitting.

Hughes went the entire distance in the overtime opening game and won out when Ernie Koy singled with the bases full in the 15th. The hit scored Stan Benjamin who ran for Hughes.

Hughes gave up only 10 hits. He collapsed on the bench after the 10th inning when he ran from first to third, but was revived and came back strong.

Wins Match After 16 Years; Frank Tatum Will Join Navy

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 28.—(AP)—Frank Tatum, Jr., of Stanford took 16 years to win his first major tournament—the National Intercollegiate championship—and now he's ready to put away his clubs and apply for a commission in the Navy Engineering Corps.

That was the next step this Phi Beta Kappa student planned to take after winning the coveted college golfing title Saturday with a 5 and 4 victory over Manuel de la Torre, Northwestern sophomore. It was the first year the individual crown went to a Stanford boy, although Stanford teams have won three of the last five titles.

It's A Long Time To Wait Between Matches This Year

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—Women golfers are finding it a long time between major tournaments this war-time summer. The girls who competed in last week's Western Open at Elmhurst now must wait until August 10-15 for more action—in the Women's Western Closed, an all-amateur event.

A half-dozen stars of the Open said today they planned to return to Chicago in August to compete in the Closed, which will be played at Sunset Ridge Country club in suburban Winnetka.

Betty Jameson, winner of the Women's Western Open yesterday with a 9 and 7 victory over Phyllis Otto of Atlantic, Iowa, was uncertain whether she would make the trip again from her San Antonio, Texas, home. Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, Ga., also thought transportation difficulties might keep her from returning.

But Miss Otto, the Open runner-up, and semifinalists Marion Row of Bloomington, Ill., all put the Closed tourney in their future books. So did Sallie Sessions of Muskegon, Mich., Dorothy Foster of Springfield, Ill., and Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D., all well-regarded competitors in the Open tournament.

Since none of last week's competitors were professionals, it would be possible for all to play again in the August meet. Already considered a strong bet in Virginia Ingram. A quarter finalist in the Open last week, Miss Ingram will be playing on her home course come August.

PIRATES CAPTURE TWO FROM GIANTS

Home Runs Feature Attacks In Pittsburgh 8-7 And 9-3 Victories
NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—Home runs splattered all over the Polo grounds today but most of them rattled off the bats of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who took both ends of the doubleheader with the New York Giants, 8-7 and 9-3.

Seven pitchers paraded to the hill in the first game as the teams bagged a total of 27 hits, but the deciding blow was a ninth-inning homer by Elbie Fletcher which pinned the defeat on Ace Adams, last of four New York moundsmen.

The Giants collected 14 hits and came from behind four times to tie the score, only to have Alton Wilkie, third Pirate hurler, slam the door after Fletcher's game winning wallop.

Bob Elliott of the Pirates blasted two homers in the first game, one with a mate aboard, and Jim Wasdell hit one. Mel Ott of the Giants poled a two-run homer in the opening frame, his 11th four-master of the year.

Wasdell also hit for the circuit in the second game and Frank Gustine and Pete Coscarart of the Pirates added two-run homers to lead the 13-hit attack on Hal Schumacher and Dave Koslo.

Bob Klingler held the Giants to five hits, one of which was a home run by Schumacher which brought in both Giant runs.

ATHLETICS SPLIT WITH DETROIT

Newhouse Wins Game 3-2, But Tigers Return For Shutout 3-0

DETROIT, June 28.—(AP)—South-paw Newhouse set down the Philadelphia Athletics on three hits for their sixth straight defeat, 3 to 2, in the first game of a doubleheader today but the Mackmen struck back for a 3 to 0 triumph over the Tigers in the second game on the five-hit hurling of Luman Harris.

Thoroughly tamed at the plate in the opener, the A's broke loose with a 14-hit assault in the after-piece, getting ten of the blow-off Dizzy Trout, who lasted seven innings and was charged with the loss, his sixth against seven wins.

Mike Kreevich, chunky Philadelphia fly-chaser, drove in three of the Mack's six runs for the day and scored another.

Newhouse pitched lissless ball for 6 1/3 innings before Lou Blair singled. The A's got both their runs in the eighth when Knickerbocker doubled. Crash Davis drew one of seven passes off Newhouse, pitcher Russ Christopher sacrificed them along and Kreevich poked a single to right.

The Tigers pushed across the winning run in the ninth on Don Ross' pinch single with the bases loaded.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning of the second game—enough to win behind Harris' airtight tossing. Kreevich walked, De Miles doubled, Dick Siebert singled and Miles counted on Bob Johnson's fly to center.

Harris' pitching triumph was his seventh of the season against five defeats and gave the A's their only victory of the four-game series. 3

Chicago Cubs, Braves Divide Doubleheader

BOSTON, June 28.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs snapped out of a batting slump today in time to gain an even split with the Boston Braves, who evened up with the Boston Braves, 5 to 1, after winning the nightcap, 5 to 1, after bowing before Jim Tobin's three-hit pitching, 3 to 0.

Shutout yesterday by Al Javery, the Cubs had failed to score for 21 innings when they pieced together three hits for two runs in the fourth inning of the second game.

Pitted against Claude Passeau, the Cubs' ace, Tobin held the Cubs to three hits and no Chicago runner reached third base. The victory was Tobin's seventh against 10 defeats, and the setback was the fifth for 11-game winner Passeau.

HEAFNER DEFENDS OPEN GOLF TITLE

Big Blond From Durham Ties Wood's 1940 World Record With 264

BY RAY BLOSSER
Mahoning Country Club, Girard, O., June 28.—(AP)—His iron deadly and his drives true when he needed them, Bulky Clayton Heafner blazed home in three-below-par 65 today to successfully defend his Mahoning open title with a smashing 264—as low as any marksman ever scored in a recognized golf tournament.

Thus the big blonde biffer from Durham, N. C., who worked in a candy factory before his golf game became sweet enough to put him in the professional ranks, tied Craig Wood's world record 264 of 1940 Metropolitan open vintage with rounds of 65, 65, 68 and 65—only to see it stay off the record books. The professional Golf association's tournament in a n a g Fred Corcoran explained the par course is shy several hundred yards—or about a hole—what it would have to be for a recognized mark.

For his grueling eight below par on the 72 holes, he collected the $1,000 top prize.
The Carolinian pulled home three strokes ahead of lanky E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the "Arkansas Traveler" from Harrisburg, Penn., and Horton Smith of Pinehurst, N. C., the runners-up.

Harrison, who started the day in a three-way tie with Heafner and Lloyd Mangrum at 131, collected his 267 with Sunday rounds of 70 and 66, while Smith fired a steady 65-67 to add to 134 giving them $650 each.

Five strokes behind Heafner came blazing Ben Hogan, who has pocketed better than $11,000 a year this year's leading money effort, Lloyd Mangrum of Monterey Park, Calif., and Gene Kunes of Philadelphia with 269s.
