Dorothy Breeden, Bride-Elect Of Summer, Is Feted

Mrs. Edwin Applewhite entertained Friday evening at her home in Sunset Park, honoring Miss Dorothy Breeden, bride-elect of August at a miscellaneous shower.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of roses by little Miss Peggy Jean Applewhite who was dressed as a bride. From the corsage hung white ribbons with silver hearts attached. Inside the hearts were directions telling where to find the gifts.

Bingo was played during the evening after which an ice course was served carrying out the color motif of pink and white.

BRIDE—Mrs. R. L. Melvin, who before her marriage June 7 in Wilmington, was Miss Ruth Coble, of Wilmington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Coble.

MIND YOUR MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- Should a house guest take his own toothpaste, shaving cream, etc., with him, or expect his host to supply him?
- If someone you know only slightly hears that you are going to make the same trip he is taking, and offers to take you in his car, should you insist on paying part of the expenses?
- If you spend a month with a relative with whom you do not ordinarily live, should you take your sugar ration card along?

- If there is a possibility of a golf game, should a week-end guest take his own clubs?
- If the hostess rude who does not answer a guest's bread-and-butter note?

What would you do if—
An acquaintance who is very proud of his garden wants to give you some vegetables that you won't like very well—
(a) Take them and thank him?
(b) Tell him you don't like the vegetables?

ANSWERS

- The guest should take his own.
  - Yes.
  - Certainly.
  - Yes.
  - No. For it is not necessary, to answer bread-and-butter letters. Better "What Would You Do" solution—(a) is more tactful.
- The United States, during the first six months of 1940, exported 193,849 pounds of peppermint oil.
