

Miss Metcalf Weds Dr. Watkins In St. Louis, Mo.

In a simple but impressive ceremony in beautiful Danforth Memorial chapel at St. Louis, Mo., Miss Charlotte Jean Metcalf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seward E. Metcalf, of Coffeyville, Kans., became the bride of Dr. Carlton Gunter Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edison L. Watkins of 211 North Thirteenth street of this city, the wedding taking place on Sunday evening, March 21, at 8 o'clock. Dr. David L. Stitt, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church of St. Louis, officiated at the double ring service.

Vows were exchanged before an altar banked with fern, with baskets of pink and white snapdragons and full candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers completing the background.

Miss Lois Johnson of Cape Girardeau, Mo., at the chapel organ, played the wedding march from Lehengrin as a processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional. She also played "Ave Maria" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony and muted selections during the service.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Luella DeForest of Lawrence, Kan., a classmate of the bride, wore a light green gabardine dress with rust accessories and white gardenia corsage. Dr. Raymond Wheeler of Sanford, a classmate of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended in a street-length dress of white wool jersey with gold and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Mrs. Metcalf, mother of the bride, wore a suit of black silk crepe with white accessories and shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Watkins, the bridegroom's sister, wore a flowered silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding, a reception was held for the couple at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Wheeler. Masses of spring flowers decorated the living rooms and were featured in the floral arrangement of the refreshment table, which was centered with a large 3-tier wedding cake adorned with miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Wheeler presided at the punch bowl and Miss DeForest had charge of the guest book.

The couple will be at home April 1, at 4417 Forest Park Blvd., St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Watkins attended the Coffeyville schools, graduating from Field Kindley Memorial high school in 1938, where she was president of the Tornado Tillies in her senior year and a member of the National Honor society. She also attended Kansas State college at Manhattan where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta National sorority. She took her nurse's training at St. Luke's school of Nursing, St. Luke's hospital, Kansas City, Mo., and was president of the graduating class in the spring of 1942. Since that time she has been on the staff of Barnes St. Louis Children's hospital.

Dr. Watkins is a graduate of New Hanover high school and attended the University of North Carolina where he received his A.B. degree and completed the first two years of his medical training, being a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity. He then enrolled at Washington University School of Medicine at St. Louis, Mo., receiving his M. Dr. Watkins holds a reserve commission in the United States army, but expects to be permitted to complete a year's internship, which he will serve in St. Louis city hospital.

splendid time to center the program on the history of the division and its achievements during its forty-six years.

There are three other important projects for immediate chapter action, two requiring special committees. Mrs. C. K. Proctor, Oxford, chairman of Southern Literature for Libraries, is asking each chapter to form a committee to furnish magazine subscriptions, church papers, home papers, and books for "day rooms" at army and navy bases in North Carolina. She urges these local groups to contact the proper officers at a nearby camp or base, secure the name of a day room, and send reading material to the men in service. Mrs. Proctor points out that Uncle Sam needs forty-three million books to keep the men and women in service supplied with reading matter.

Another project for special chapter committees is the locating of all unmarked Confederate graves in their respective counties. No money is required but work is necessary. The graves have to be located and individual application blanks obtained from George Ross Pou, Raleigh, filled out, and returned to him. The Federal government will furnish one of two types of marble headstones. Mr. Rowe is hopeful that chapters will have as many graves as possible marked by May 10.

Mrs. Fred D. Jerome, Pittsboro, reminds chapters to order Crosses of Military Service for bestowal on May 10, North Carolina Confederate Memorial Day. As yet, no appropriate recognition can be accorded Confederate descendants now serving our country, as this requires action by the General convention. Chapters are urged, however, to bestow crosses to veterans of World War I and the Spanish-American war. Remember too, that there are four prizes for this activity. Mrs. Paul Borden, of Goldsboro, will give a silver loving cup to the chapter of more than fifty members awarding the greatest number of crosses, and the Parsons cup, given by Mrs. Mary Bennett Little, will go to the chapter of less than fifty members.

bers bestowing the most crosses. Mrs. Carl V. Cline, Hickory, and Mrs. Jerome, Pittsboro, are offering five-dollar awards to the large and small chapters awarding the second greatest number of crosses. The third project to which attention is directed this month is the sending of applications for U. D. C. scholarships to Mrs. Henry Oscar Steele, Summit Avenue, Statesville. The applications must be sent not later than May 1. Applicants must be descendants of confederate veterans, be without other means for an education, and have scholastic ability.

Remember Bill?

★ Guess you folks remember my boy, Bill... he was that tall, skinny kid who played on the Central High School basketball team.

Day after Pearl Harbor, he signed up with the Marines.

Bill, he—well, I guess you saw the Marine casualty list from Guadalcanal...

Mom and me, we talk a lot in the house now... but we keep hearin' the noise a kid named Bill used to make. Nights seem awful long when your only child is—away.

Guess all we can do to honor our Bills and Toms and Jims is to put every cent we can't afford in War Bonds. War Bonds will bring your Bill home sooner—safer!

My boy was a star-spangled American. ARE YOU?
