

KNOX TELLS NAVY TO DESTROY FOE

Issues Order In Message Commemorating Navy Day On Oct. 27

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Secretary of the Navy Knox gave orders to the fleet today: "Seek out the enemy — and destroy him!"

His orders are contained in a message commemorating Navy Day, October 27, in which he also pleases that "the most ruthless and cruel enemies of all time shall be driven from the seas."

The text: "Navy Day of 1943 is a fighting day for the United States fleet on every ocean of the world. In the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Mediterranean and in other theatres of action, our men in navy blue are slugging it out with the enemy. The hearts of more than a hundred and thirty million Americans are with them in the tremendous task ahead.

"During almost two years of war a patriotic nation has dedicated trained hands and willing effort to the construction of a mighty fleet — the greatest in our history. Upon this ability to build and keep on building, rests the navy's ability to carry out future attacks. Our fighting men have proved their battle worth. Given the ships, the planes and the guns in sufficient quantities they will never let us down.

"Thousands of these valiant men have already given their lives as their contribution to the ultimate victory which is now assured. I am confident that the people of this country will not forget that sacrifice, nor what is being done by our gallant Allies.

"On this Navy Day, every patriotic American salutes the men of our Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps with a hearty 'well done'. And those at home proudly join with those who are far away in a silent battle pledge that the most ruthless and cruel enemies of all time shall be driven from the seas.

"To the men of the fleet I say with confidence and with pride: Seek out the enemy — and destroy him! Today, tomorrow and tomorrow we must attack!"
