Playing on a soaked field before a scant 3,5000 spectators, West Virglia gained its first victory of the year by scoring in the second quarter after Pat (Buddy) Pike, W. Va. end, scooped up a Maryland fumble and ran 55 yards to the goal line.

West Virginia, although put on the defensive several times, managed to roll back all Maryland scoring threats until near the end of the game when Captain Kenny Fryer fumbled his goal and gave the Marylanders two points.
