

BEARS, REDSKINS TO BATTLE TODAY

Washington Eleven Will Be Scrapping To Keep Record Clean

By DAVE HOFF

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. —(AP)— It's slightly preview stuff tomorrow, this National Football league collision of the Chicago Bears and the Washington Redskins in the National capital, because they'll do it all over again Dec 19 in the Chicago championship game. But the boys will be playing for keeps.

Both the Bears and Redskins are undefeated but once this season, and while the Chicagoans have a heavy statistical superiority, the Redskins will be scrapping to keep that record clean—and that means a ball game.

A Chicago win will clinch an undisputed western title for the Bears, and a Washington triumph will assure the Redskins of an Eastern tie. But regardless of the outcome, both foes seem certain of clashing in the pro title affair here next month.

The New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles of the East and the Green Bay Packers of the West, still mathematically in the title chase, will be up against second division opponents tomorrow, the Chicago Cardinals at New York, the Eagles against Detroit at Pittsburgh, and Green Bay versus the Dodgers at Brooklyn.

The Bears are considered favorites against the Redskins tomorrow, on that's the same kind of loose talk that made the rounds before they met in the 1942 title game, and the Washingtons subsequently won the Chicagoans' pennant ship, 14 to 6.

Disregarding the psychological angle, the figures argue nicely for the Bears. They top the league in total yards gained with 421.3 a game, including a leading 170.3 yard average rushing and 251 yards passing, with Washington running third in total and rushing yardage a game and trailing by some 56 yards in aerials.

Sid Luckman has completed 91 of 138 passes to Sammy Baugh's 85 out of 154, and has gained 1,806 yards to Sammy's 1,138, with 23 touchdowns thrown included to beat Baugh by four. The Chicagoans have such ball-carrying stalwarts as Harry Clark, Dante Magnani and Gary Flamingo, although the Redskins speak right out about the exploits of their Andy Farkas and Wilbur Moore. It shapes up as a great game.

Phil Pitt's title hopes, and even his runner-up aspirations, may be dealt a blow by the remarkable Detroit Lions, although no one would accuse the Eagles of not taking care of themselves this season. But the Lions, ending their schedule tomorrow, have yielded only to the league's big three—Washington, the Bears and Green Bay—and have been a scrappy outfit all the way under the first year tutoring of Gus Dorais.

COAST GUARD SET FOR BOMBER GAME

Sailors Are Depending On Otts, Carl Hunt And Warnie Check

The Wilmington - Wrightsville Coast Guard football team winds up the season's schedule this afternoon a return game with the Bluetenthal Bombers from the Wilmington Army Air Base. The kick-off time has been set for 3:00 p. m., at Legion stadium.

In a previous encounter four weeks ago, these teams clashed and the Coast Guard eleven emerged on the long end of a 13 to 6 count. Since that engagement both teams have suffered defeats at the hands of the Camp Davis "B" team.

"Burr" West, playing tackle for the Bombers, is expected to be the thorn in the side for the Coast Guard. West, who formerly played under Coach Bob Neynd of the University of Tennessee, saw action with that team in the Rose Bowl in 1940 against Southern California. Other stars for the Bombers include many high school and semi-pro luminaries.

The Coast Guard is depending on such backfield men as "Curly" Cts and Carl Hunt, former University of Alabama players, as well as Warnie Check whose excellent running, passing and kicking gave the Bombers plenty of trouble in the teams' first meeting. Because of an injured hand, Check will be playing under a handicap this afternoon. The Coast Guard forward wall boasts of such stalwarts as Johnny Calvano, 215 pound tackle, Alan DeRatt, 230 pound tackle and Charlie Devine, 185 pound agile end.

Officials for the game will be Danielake, Southern conference referee, with Bryant, former Wake Forest star as head lineman. Farker will be time-keeper, and Lanier will act as field judge.

Purdue Beats Indiana To End Perfect Season

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 20. —(AP)— For 52 years Indiana and Purdue have been playing football against each other, but the oldest greybeard had to scratch his head to find an equal in thrills today as the Boilermakers from Purdue completed their first perfect season since 1929, with a 7 to 0 victory over their Hoosier rivals.

The triumph not only assured Purdue of a big spot in National ratings, but gave the service-booster Boilermakers a tie with Michigan for the Big Ten championship. The 15,000 fans were in a frenzy throughout the entire last quarter as Indiana drove inside the Purdue five yard line three times and on the last occasion the stalwart Boilermaker line held for four downs within its two yard line and took the ball on its one just seven seconds before the final gun.

Fort Riley Captures Midwest Army Crown

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 20. —(AP)— Outgained and outplayed by a wide margin, Fort Riley capitalized on two breaks today before 7,000 soldier and civilian spectators to take the Midwest Army championship from Camp Grant by a 10 to 6 score.

The Centaurs scored their touchdown in the first quarter when they launched an offensive from the Grant 16 yard line. Bob Ruman tossed a screen pass to his brother Bernie, who was conveyed to the goal line by a wave of blockers. Guard Clifton Patton placekicked the extra point.

FORMULA ISSUED
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. —(AP)— The War Labor Board today issued a formula for computing overtime pay for pieceworkers and outside employes in the nation's coal mines which figures out 39 cents less per week than a method proposed by the Secretary of Interior. J. C. Davis said that the weekly take-home earnings of a miner would be $7.07 for six days under the WLB formula, which went to ticks for study.

CLEMSON DOWNED BY GEORGIA TECH

Yellow Jackets' Squad Swamps Tigers' Civilian Outfit, 41 To 6

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 20. —(AP)— Georgia Tech trotted out everything but the ghost of 1923's Rose Bowl team today and the first stringers and substitutes swamped hapless Clemson's civilian team, 41-6 before 10,000 fans.

Eddie Prokop and Co., scored 13 points before Clemson had time to get up a sweat, and the second team ran the lead to 25-0 by the end of the first period. Clemson rallied against the third stringers and there was no scoring in the next quarter.

Then, in the third period, Tech ran in a former Virginia Military Institute star, Bash Pritchard. Recovery of a fumble gave Tech the ball on Clemson's 13, and when a couple of line bucks failed in an appreciable gain, Pritchard stepped back to the 22 and calmly drop-kicked a field goal.

Columbia's Lions Bow To Colgate, 41 To 0

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. —(AP)— Columbia's battered, baffled and b-wildered Lions ended their most pathetic and futile football season today by bowing to a hard-driving Colgate eleven, 41 to 0. It was the eighth straight decisive defeat in eight starts for Lou Little's team. The game was less than seven minutes old when Frank Muehleuser, who scored three of Colgate's touchdowns, rammed over from the one yard line for the first score after a penalty-interrupted march of 63 yards. On the second play of the second period he passed 15 yards to Dick Owen for a second score.

DEVILS WIN PART OF CONFERENCE FOOTBALL TITLE

Haggerty picked up one yard by a line smash, Luper dropped back and tossed a flat pass to Haggerty in the end zone for a touchdown and Gantt kicked the point. Late in the same period, Luper swept end for 50 yards to the North Carolina one-yard line to set up the Dukes' third touchdown. His spectacular run was stopped short of the goal by Hosea Rodgers, the Tar Heels' defensive back, when the ex-Alabama star got a shoe-string hold on Luper's heels. After that, the Blue Devils needed only two plays before pushing George Balitsaris, ex-Tennessee freshman, across for the touchdown. Gantt's kick was good for the extra point.

Late in the final period, Wall intercepted one of Myers' passes on the North Carolina 31 to set up the Dukes' final marker. Everett (Shu) Carleton, Winston-Salem star, made two at the line, and then Howard Hartley broke through the Tar Heel defense for 21 yards to the eight. Hartley tried one pass that was broken up and then he connected to Bob Gantt in the end zone for the touchdown. Gantt then missed his first extra point in three games. His record stands at 40 successes out of 45 attempts.

The Tar Heels then found a successful passing combination in tailback Billy Myers and Fred Miller, end, to score their only marker of the game.

The Tar Heels, who last week upset Penn 9-6, were not in the game from an offensive standpoint but the stout forward Wall stopped several Duke threats that penetrated deep into their territory they gained only 88 yards. The Dukes picked up 320 yards rushing but were limited to 31 yards on four of 10 passing attempts.

Dartmouth Cops 42-13 Victory From Tigers

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Dartmouth's powerful T-formation football team wound up its season today with a decisive 42 to 13 victory over outmanned, but not out-gamed Princeton. The only blot on Dartmouth's seven game record is a 7-6 defeat by Pennsylvania.

A crowd of some 8,000 sat in sunny Palmer stadium as Don Kaspar, 2a, sparked the six-touchdown Green attack. The former Columbia star twice passed to Allen Russell for touchdowns and scored a third himself on a neat 31-yard sprint in the last quarter. The other Green scores came on a short aerial by Tom Donovan, Larry Bartnick's 36-yard run and Bob Mangene's 14-yard sprint on a reverse.

Northwestern Wallops Illinois Club, 53 - 6

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Northwestern, beaten only by Michigan and Notre Dame, ended a successful football campaign today by walloping Illinois' youngsters, 53 to 6 before 25,000 spectators. The Wildcats scored their sixth victory in easy fashion, rambling 41 yards or more for seven of their touchdowns and connecting for the eighth on a slick 38 yard pass play engineered by a couple of third stringers, Bill Adler and Bernard Schuder.

But the Illinois, pounded into their fourth conference defeat in six games, had reason to cheer in the third period when little Eddie Bray snagged a Northwestern kickoff and ran 90 yards to score in the most spectacular play of the day.

IRISH PUSHED TO BEAT IOWA SEAHAWKS, 14-13

The Irish Terrors of the T to 187 yards by rushing—the lowest count of the season for them—did not permit Notre Dame to advance beyond the midfield stripe in the first quarter.

As time was running out in the opening period, Jimmy Smith, formerly of Illinois, and Todd Cole, laborator for a Seahawk, push which carried from the 38 to 8, from where Art Guepe, one of Marquette's all-time greats in 1936, crashed over.

Barney McCarty of Utah, and a four-year veteran with the Cleveland Rams, kicked the point and the preflighters went into a 7-0 lead which they protected until the half.

Notre Dame's T began showing power at the outset of the third period with Jim Mello, Creighton Miller and Johnny LuJack's passing burning up yardage. Sub Bob Kelly finally topped a 64-yard parade by lashing over from the three.

The Seahawks poured over their second touchdown at the start of the last period. After a 73-yard march had been stopped on the six and the Irish had taken over the ball, LuJack fumbled with George Tobin recovering on the 13. Todd Burk, reserve end from Minneapolis, for a touchdown. McCarty's try for extra point failed. The ball bouncing off one of the uprights.

After the ensuing Seahawk kickoff, Notre Dame strung Miller and Mello from its deceptive T on a 35-yard drive. Miller crashed over from the six and Early's placekick clinched the victory. But before the final gun, the Seahawks rumped 49 yards to the Irish 11. McCarty was called upon to try a desperation field goal from the 16-yard line. It fizzled. Later the Seahawks' regained the ball on the Irish 33 when Schwartz captured Miller's fumble. But last-minute passes were grounded.

Howard Too Powerful For Sewanee Gridders

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Paced by the brilliant running and pass-receiving of Cecil Duffee, Howard's Seadogs proved much too strong for Sewanee today in a 42-6 victory before a scant crowd of 3,000.
Duffee scored three of his team's six touchdowns and his long punt returns kept the losers bottled up for most of the game.

MICHIGAN DOWNS OHIO STATE, 45-7

Wolverines Clinch Share Of Western Conference Ball Championship

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Michigan's Navy-Marine studded Wolverines trounced the "Baby Buckeyes" of Ohio State, 45-7, to clinch a share of the Western Conference football championship with Purdue in a season finale witnessed by 45,000 here, today.

Michigan's seven - touchdown spurge was fashioned mainly in the second half when the Wolverines rolled up 32 points against the scrappy but outmanned Ohio State youngsters.

The Wolverines, held scoreless in the first period, led only 13-0 at half time and then had Ernie Parks, rangy Negro star, sprinted 36 yards for the only Buckeye touchdown and Johnny Stungis kicked the point.

But then the Wolverines caught fire and savagely ripped the firing Buckeye line to score almost at will. Fullback Bob Wiese, whose spinning thrusts bewildered the Buckeyes, led the scoring with two touchdowns, both on short bucks.

Judge Landis Notes His 77th Birthday

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. —(AP)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, white-haired commissioner of baseball, celebrated his 77th birthday today feeling no different, he said, than he did when he reached his 50th birthday.

"That worried me," he commented, "getting as old as 50. I thought it would be terrible. But I got over it. I feel great."

The celebrated former federal jurist doesn't look his age, or act it. He's up to his neck in work daily.

His hair, now snow white, is bushy and covers his head. He washes it daily, with any kind of soap available.

TULANE DEFEATS LOUISIANA STATE ELEVEN, 27 TO 0

center and Jones added the point from placement. Jones, a freshman member of Louisiana State's varsity last year, got the second Tulane touchdown five minutes later, slashing through tackle from the one yard line after a blocked punt had set up the play. George Jones, Tulane tackle, had blocked freshman Gene Knight's punt and Ken Tarzetti recovered on the Louisiana State one.

Jones kicked the point from placement and within less than four minutes had struck through center from the Tigers' 10-yard line for the third touchdown of the period. Gene Knight, Louisiana State's back, fumbled and Elliott Iglehart recovered for Tulane on the Tigers' 24-yard line. Renfro's pass was intercepted by Wingback Joe Nagata of the Tigers but Finley swiped the ball out of his arms and plowed to the 10-yard stripe.

Tulane wound up the scoring early in the fourth quarter, with tailback Jim Shiveri driving over from the one-yard line. Jones missed his first try for extra point out of four attempts.

With the great Steve Van Buren playing less than four minutes, Louisiana State was able to make only two scoring threats. Midway of the second period Knight and Carroll drove 50 yards to the Tulane 11-yard line where the ball went over on downs. Van Buren, after retiring from the game soon after the opening kickoff, came into the Tiger lineup and plunged four yards in the drive.

ALABAMA WINS TUSCALOOSA AIA, NOV. 20

Alabama's informal football team outscored Marion Institute today, 19-13 on Hudson Conway's 55-yard touchdown run with an intercepted pass in the third period. The Marion Cadets had rolled up a 13-0 lead in the first quarter.

IOWA STATE TRIUMPHS AMES, IA, NOV. 20

AMES, Ia., Nov. 20. —(AP)—The forward passing combination of Halfbacks Howard Tippee and George Gast, both of whom closed their collegiate gridiron careers, led Iowa State to a 48 to 0 victory over Kansas State today before 4,000 fans.

Alameda Coast Guard Wins Over Bears, 7-0

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Playing bruising, battering football, the Alameda coast guard eleven closed its regular schedule with a 7 to 0 victory over University of California's bears before a scant, weather-shy crowd of 7,500 today.

It was a bump and thud contest, with the guardsmen finally putting together a touchdown drive in the third period. After smashes at the line and a nine yard pass, and aided by a five yard penalty the guardsmen's Rred Shaw, 225 pound fullback, formerly of the University of San Francisco, pounded through to score. Left half Gonzales Morales kicked the point.

MAIN OFFICE WINS OVER HULL STAFF

Shipyards Conference Play-Off Is Scheduled For This Week

The Main Office team of the North Carolina Shipbuilding company took the Hull Staff last night by a score of 6-0 in the touch football game to determine which team would meet the Erectors in a play-off this week for the title in the shipyard league. The Erectors have won both halves of the conference and the right to play this team was divided between the Main Office and the Hull Staff.

Last night's touchdown was made on a pass from Neilson, who received and lateraled to Brower, who tossed the ball to Strickland on the eight yard line. The nearest the Hull Staff came to scoring was in the latter part of the first half, when Strange got off a 40-yard pass to Cheshire. The team threatened to gain in the last quarter when Strange again passed with Bowin on the receiving end clear to the one yard line, where it was held for downs.

Of the 24 attempted passes last night, the Hull Staff completed seven, 11 were intercepted, four by Bowles and two by Neilson. This team made a total of 48 yards rushing and punts averaged 32 yards.

The Main Office team completed 10 of 25 attempts at passing, 14 of which were incomplete and 14 of the Hull Staff, intercepted one.

The Main Office retains the right to play the Erectors for the shipyard title. Play-off will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday on the touch football field at Legion stadium.

Sixth Street Church Plans Three Services

The Sixth Street Advent Christian church plans three services for today as the four-week evangelistic campaign draws to a close. The South Dakota evangelist, Winfield F. Jamison, will speak at 11 o'clock this morning, at 4 o'clock this afternoon and again at the closing service of the campaign tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

Jamison's life has been an interesting series of unusual experiences and his message this afternoon at 4 o'clock will be based upon his experiences for the past 22 years. He will have many things to say to the converts of this campaign and to all young Christians in the way of Godly counsel, it was said.

VILLANOVA TRIUMPHS PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 20

Big Al Postus, closing out a brilliant career at Villanova college, scored two touchdowns and set up all three others in a brilliant display of running and passing before 10,000 in sunlit Temple stadium today as Villanova swamped a game gang of Temple youngsters, 34-7, in the final game of the season for both teams.

IOWA STATE TRIUMPHS AMES, IA, NOV. 20

AMES, Ia., Nov. 20. —(AP)—The forward passing combination of Halfbacks Howard Tippee and George Gast, both of whom closed their collegiate gridiron careers, led Iowa State to a 48 to 0 victory over Kansas State today before 4,000 fans.

PENN STATE WINS OVER PITT, 14 - 0

Scores Two Touchdowns In First Half Before 15,000 Fans

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 20. —(AP)— Penn State's Nittany Lions, led by Bill Abromitis, an ex-Pitt star, and two marine trainees who had joined the team only three weeks ago, struck for two first half touchdowns today to down the Pitt Panthers, 14 to 0, before a crowd of 15,000.

A Pitt, an all-civilian team doped to lose by the margin it did to a Navy and Marine-boostered opponent, was outplayed throughout, and made only two threats, one to the Lion 28 in the third period, and another to the 20 in the closing seconds.

A bromitis personally spearheaded the Lions to a touchdown in the first six and one-half minutes, after taking a Pitt kick on the Panther 37. He bucked the line to the 22, shot an 18-yard pass to Dick Rumball, and then charged over.

The second touchdown went from the Pitt 45 to the five, where Dick McCown, a Marine trainee from Philadelphia, kneeling down on the 12 for a field goal try, faked it and raced over on fourth down. A 21-yard sprint by Tubby Crawford, another marine trainee who was a goalie on the soccer team three weeks ago, set up the touchdown. Ed Czekj converted both extra points.

Harvard And Boston Battle To 6-6 Tie

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 20. —(AP)—The informal football forces of Harvard and Boston College provided one of the most outstanding financial bargains in intercollegiate sports' history while battling to a stirring 6-6 tie today before a 45,000 crowd at the stadium.

The huge throng, the largest New England football has attracted this season, sat in on the first gridiron clash in 24 years between these neighboring institutions for the flat price of 50-cents.

NEBRASKA DEFEATED LINCOLN, NEB., NOV. 20

Mark up one for Iowa's Hawkeyes in big letters—they whipped Nebraska today 33 to 13. It was a birthday gift for Iowa's coach, "Slip" Madigan; it was the first time in 25 years Iowa has beaten Nebraska in Lincoln; it was the first victory of the year for Iowa.

Southwestern Moves Toward Bowl Invite

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 20. —(AP)—The Southwestern Pirates of Georgetown, Texas, moved up a step closer today when they defeated Monticello, Ark. A. & M. Bollweevils, 7 to 0 before a crowd of about 5,000. The contest was staged for the benefit of the war chest.

The contest featured two strong defensive clubs with the Pirates having a slight advantage due to the brilliant punting of Bill Hearne, wingman, former Texas Christian university player, whose long boots kept the Bollweevils well back in their own territory.

Kansas Registers 7-6 Upset Over Missouri

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 20. —(AP)—Substitute Bill Chestnut calmly drop-kicked the extra point to give a battling University of Kansas football team a 7-6 upset victory today over Missouri before a Big Six conference homecoming crowd of 8,000.

Chestnut's point-maker followed a 44-yard Kansas march to a touchdown in the third quarter.
