Mrs. Bazar is believed to have married E. A. Shine, a member of the Seabees in Houston, Texas, and later, without a divorce, to have married Lieut. Walter Bazar, eleminate phrase now at Camp Davis, police said.

She was arrested at the Brunswick Hotel with a private in the Air Corps, stationed at Bluethenthal Field, February 29.

ENEMY ATTEMPTS LOS NEGROS PUSH

A few barge loads of Japanese from nearby Manus island attempted to land Tuesday on Los Negros, but were quickly beaten back. The seldom-seen Nipponese air force made a light attack, but failed to check the advancing Texans or to keep the American air forces from using the Japanesebuilt Momote airdrome.

"Several hundred additional enemy dead have been found" by the Americans who had previously buried 1,200 Japanese since Los Negros was invaded Feb. 29.

Japan's outposts were hit in the Solomons and 3,700 miles to the north at Para ushiro, in the Cen tral Pacific Marshall islands and 5,000 miles to the east in Burma. "Heavy anti-aircraft fire" over Paramushire was reported by the Navy yesterday for the first time in eight months of periodic attacks on the northern Kurile islands by Aleutian-based bombers.

The latest raid was made Sunday night by Navy Venturas-the third within two weeks. The Navy announcements indicate the Jap anese are steadily increasing their defenses around the Paramushiro naval base, guardian of the northern approaches to Japan. No American planes have ever been shot down over the Kuriles.

In northern Burma American troops have joined with Chinese forces and are closing in on about 2,000 trapped Japanese. "The Japanese suffered extremely heavy casualties," said Lt. Gen. Joseph W Stillwell who directs both Am-
