Mary Humber Gray Receives Commission

MAXWELL FIELD, Ala. March 8.—Second Lieutenant Mary Humber Gray recently was graduated from an Army Nurses' Basic Training course here, and has been assigned to duty within the Army Air Forces Training Command.

Lieutenant Gray was a member of a class of Army Nurses who completed a four weeks' course conducted at the Station hospital and elsewhere on the post. Recently inaugurated by the AAF, the course provides already commissioned Army Nurses with a suitable background of military training, in some respects similar to the basic training given enlisted men on entering the army.

Lieutenant Gray's home is at Wilmington, N. C. she was formerly at McLeod Infirmary, Florence, S. C.

Typical of today's high-necked, short-sleeved jumper style is the two-piece jersey outfit (left) with navy blue skirt and leather belted blouse of horizontal pink and blue stripes. The Russian style overblouse of red and white print, worn with a black crepe skirt (right), is another version of the new long look.

Bizet's "Carmen" Given At Woman's College By Philadelphia Company

GREENSBORO, March 8.—Students at the Woman's college will tonight witness a presentation by Philadelphia Opera company of Bizet's "Carmen," the production in Aycock auditorium to be a number of the Civic Music association in which all college students hold memberships.

With a cast of American singers, Philadelphia Opera company has given audiences a new type of opera which has won the approval of both critics and less exacting hearers. Texts are sung in English by youthful artists, who perform in a modern stage setting. A company of 70 with a symphony orchestra will give the local performance of "Carmen."

Ruth Millett Has Soothing Word For Irish

By RUTH MILLETT
It was probably just human for the Irish to get riled up over the will of Mrs. Bernard Shaw, who left $400,000 to teach the Irish elocution, self-control, and deportment. Nobody likes to have it hinted that his personally could be improved upon.

But actually Mrs. Shaw's money, if it buys what she wished it to, couldn't be better spent.

In part, her will says: "I have had many opportunities of observing the extent to which the most highly instructed and capable persons have their efficiency defeated and their influence limited for the want of any organized instruction and training for personal contracts. . . and how their employment in positions for which they have valuable qualifications is made socially impossible by vulgarities of speech and other defects easily as corrigible by teaching and training as simple literacy."

There is really no reason for her neighbors to get their Irish up over that because what Mrs. Shaw says of the people of her husband's country is equally true of the people of other countries.

SAD AWAKENING
We have a very real example of what Mrs. Shaw is talking about right here in America. Look around you at many of the people who hold good jobs today even though they don't know anything about the simplest rules of courtesy.

They have their jobs now because jobs are plentiful. But when jobs are scarce again, the employees who don't know how to behave in the business world are going to be out in the cold.

They would benefit by a careful reading of Mrs. Shaw's forthright will.

Twice cracked, the Liberty Bell was recast in Philadelphia.

1,200 Persons Attend Meeting Of Baptist WMU

CHARLOTTE, March 8—(P)—More than 1,250 persons attending the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist State Convention here heard addresses tonight by Dr. Hudson McMillan, missionary to China, M. A. Huggins of Raleigh, and the Rev. Jacob Gartenhaus of Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. McMillan, who spent seven months in a Japanese internment camp, said he had derived great faith from associating with Chinese Christians and had found that the Grace of God was sufficient for all things through prayer. He said the war undoubtedly would be the cause of the greatest opportunity to the gospel ever known.

Huggins said the Baptist State Convention was emphasizing city missions because of a great influx to the cities. He added that of the 2,550 churches in the convention 1,800 were rural and were not going to be ignored in convention work. He urged wider interest in foreign missions.

Gartenhaus told the audience the persecution of the Jews in Europe had made many of them Christians and commented that they were realizing that only by the principles of Christ could there be any peace.

Today's session was opened with devotional exercises led by Miss Cleo Mitchell of Meredith College, Raleigh, after which Mrs. J. S. Farmer of Raleigh, president, submitted her report.

Other addresses were by Miss Olive Lawton, missionary to China; Miss Ora Alford of Raleigh; Miss Mary Currin of Raleigh; Miss Kathleen Mallory of Birmingham, Ala., Misses Ruby and Ruth Lyons of Meredith College; Dr. I. G. Greer of Thomasville, General manager of the orphanages at Thomasville and Kinston; Miss Mary Lee Ernest of East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville; Miss Pearl Johnson, missionary to China, and Mrs. Motola, Ayorida, a native of Nigeria.

The more than 1,250 registered conferees overflowed the auditorium of the First Baptist Church and had to be seated in the Sunday school rooms and hear the speeches over a public address system.

The meeting will end tomorrow with a memorial service and business session.

Action Against Tabor City Firm Is Settled

RALEIGH, March 8—(P)—T. S. Johnson, director of the Raleigh district of the Office of Price Administration, said today that a treble-damage against the Tabor City Lumber Company has been settled with the receipt of a check for $930.08 from the company.

Johnson said the lumber firm was charged with selling Southern pine lumber at prices above ceiling set by the OPA. He said the payment made by the company was three times the amount of the alleged overcharge.
