Catholic Leader Terms Pin-Up Photos Indecent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Cheeseecake pin-up girls for servicemen overseas provide "an indecent picture before their dining gaze," William C. Smith, assistant executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Men, said today.

At the same session of a four-day family life conference at the Catholic University of America, the Rev. Timothy J. Mulvey, professor of homiletics and English, called upon the American radio industry to "recognize the place God deserves on the radio log of American broadcasting."

Smith contended the press should "soft-pedal or give a different slant to, or even omit entirely, certain of the more lurid news items connected with divorce, illicit romances, sex crimes and the like."

He also asserted that too many comics were feeding and teaching children "ideas of violence, crime and even lust."

Advertisements which "appeal to the reader's lower nature," Smith said, include "lewd descriptions of women's undergarments."

He added: "In thinking particularly of the advertisements for perfume, the whole aim of which, it would appear, is to lead the wearer into circumstances where she can be more easily seduced."

PERSIAN COMMAND TO BE LIQUIDATED

TEHRAN, Iran, Jan. 27.—(Delayed)—Liquidation of the Persian gulf command as a result of the opening of a shorter Allied supply line through the Dardanelles and the Black Sea to Russia has begun, but American troops and influence are likely to remain in Iran for some time.

The revision, which will "streamline organization and reduce overseas personnel requirements," calls for immediate dissolution of mountain and desert units and consolidation of the Gulf district with the Khorramshahr port unit, was officially announced.

Railroad camps along the Trans-Iranian route have been transferred to the jurisdiction of the American unit to leave Iran.

The program for American withdrawal from the once-vital lifeline to Russia was worked out a year ago on Army sidesteps, for implementation as soon as the emergency route through the Persian corridor was by-passed by Allied victories. Even before the first Allied convoy steamed from the Mediterranean through the Dardanelles and the Black Sea, the Persian Gulf Command was streamlining its organization.

Motor transport service across Iran from Gulf ports, never more than an emergency auxiliary for railway transport, was abandoned about two months ago.

The only remaining truck operations are the one-way trips to Russia by vehicles assembled in the large American plant at Khorramshahr, where the U. S. Army supervises the assembly by Persian mechanics, who comprise 90 per cent of the personnel.

A smaller assembly plant at Andimeshk, one of four established originally in the British-American program of aid to Russia, has been shipped to Russia. The disposition of the remaining assembly plant at Khorramshahr will be decided in the near future.

Humphrey Bogart Admits 'Signifying Intentions' Toward New Leading Lady

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Film Actor Humphrey Bogart said today he had "signified my intentions" toward Lauren Bacall, his new leading lady, although he said he was "not exactly" engaged to her.

The intentions, he added, were "based on future plans." The movie "tough guy" and his wife, blonde Mayo Methot, recently separated.

Miss Bacall made her first appearance on the screen with Bogart in "To Have and Have Not."

ACTING AIR MARSHAL LONDON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Acting Air Marshal W. A. Coryton has been appointed assistant air commander of the Eastern Air Command in Southeast Asia, the Air Ministry announced today.

He also was named Air Marshal commanding the RAF in Bengal and Burma.
