

Mrs. Henderson Will Address Garden Club

Members Asked To Bring Flower Arrangements For Exhibit; Awards

The March meeting of the Cape Fear Garden club will be held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in St. James Great Hall with Mrs. J. B. Cramer, president, presiding.

Guest speaker of the meeting will be Mrs. Isabelle Bowen Henderson of Raleigh, well known garden club speaker of the state, who will address the members on the subject: "How to Enjoy Garden Problems in Wartime."

Members are asked to bring flower exhibits for this meeting, and flower now blooming; awards are given at each meeting for the best exhibits of the morning and at the end of the club year, the person who has received the largest number of awards during the year will be given a grand sweepstakes award. Now that camellias are at their height in blooming, it is hoped that members will fix arrangements of these blossoms for the meeting. Any member having plants for exchange is asked to bring them to the meeting. Several reports of importance will be brought up and it is hoped all members will be present.

WCUNC Summer Session Will Open On June 7

GREENSBORO, March 10.—Dates for the 1945 summer session of The Woman's college will not be affected by the week's earlier closing of the regular session, necessitated by cancellation of spring holidays at ODT request, it is announced.

Thus, summer term will open June 7 and close July 20, as it is scheduled to do in the college calendar.

Change is, however, being made in the set-up of summer school classes, according to C. W. Phillips, secretary of summer school, to make them conform to similar courses of the winter session, and thus better carry continuity for students of The Woman's college and of other senior and junior colleges.

In addition to undergraduate work in a wide variety of fields, the summer term will again offer graduate courses in the three fields of elementary education, business education and home economics.

There will be special clinics and seminars conducted by the departments of art, education and English and the school of music. A summer arts forum, similar to the highly successful forum held last month, is being planned jointly by the art and English departments and the school of music. Art department will also conduct experimental workshops, and the English department will have literary and drama workshops.

Special work in education will include clinics in supervision, elementary school administration, industrial arts, reading and social studies.

The school of music will again bring Austin Conradi, celebrated teacher, to the campus for piano master classes and offer the annual string institute. A voice master class and a public school music clinic will be added attractions.

Dr. Carl Voss Will Lecture Here Thursday

The International Relations department of North Carolina Sorosis will present Dr. Carl Herman Voss in a public lecture Thursday afternoon, March 15, at 4 o'clock in the clubhouse on North Third street. Dr. Voss will lecture on "Palestine, the Middle East, and Minorities."

Lecturer, traveler, writer and minister, Dr. Voss brings his keen analytical mind to play on the important issues of our day. He has the faculty to simplify the most complex of problems and to interpret them with clarity.

In 1943 Dr. Voss left the Smithfield Congregational church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to become extension secretary of the Church Peace Union and the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches, as well as executive secretary of the Christian Council on Palestine.

Dr. Voss has done graduate work at the International People's college at Elsinore, Denmark, and the University of Geneva in Switzerland.

He has traveled widely, both in this country and abroad, and is a careful student of American life and international problems. A frequent contributor to leading periodicals of opinion, Dr. Voss also has an avocation of radio reporting and book reviewing.

Musical selections will be rendered by Mrs. O. E. Durant, Jr., a talented young artist of Wilmington.

The committee is composed of Mrs. H. M. Roland, Mrs. Manly Williams, and Miss Virginia Ward.

The International Relations department extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend his address.

Miss Robeson Weds Lt. Daum

In a ceremony marked by beauty and simplicity, Miss Mary Eleanor Robeson became the bride of Lieut. Robert H. Daum on Saturday afternoon, March 3, at 6:30 o'clock at the Saint Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian church, with Dr. Frederick Lewis officiating.

Miss Robeson, given in marriage by her father, Cad Alexander Robeson, wore a gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline and pointed sleeves. A satin court train embroidered with flowers and a fingertip veil with rose blossoms encircling the face completed the costume. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations with a white orchid in the center.

Mrs. Robert W. Conner, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a taffeta gown of tuscchia with sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a medium blue dress with blue accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The church was decorated with fern and candlelight and large vases of white flowers. Arthur John accompanied by Mrs. Horace Pearsall rendered the nuptial music.

Mrs. Daum is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robeson of Wilmington. She attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, also Queens college of Charlotte, and has worked at Bluenthal Field.

Lt. Daum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Daum of Los Angeles, Calif. He is in the U. S. Army Air Forces, stationed at Bluenthal Field.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the bride's home, for the bridal party and a number of friends.

The home was attractively decorated with white carnations and yellow jonquils throughout. The dining room table was laid with a white lace cloth, with a lovely centerpiece of white carnations in a crystal bowl, flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake was beautifully adorned and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. S. W. Blanchard cut the cake, and Miss Norma Croom and Mrs. W. S. Merritt presided at the punch bowl.

Following the reception Lieut. and Mrs. Baum left for a brief wedding trip. Mrs. Daum wore for traveling a neon pink suit with accessories of black, and a white orchid corsage. Out of 40 guests included Mrs. W. S. Merritt of Rose Hill, Miss Mary Lucy Craft of Richmond, Walter Craft of Rose Hill, Miss Katie Craft of Rose Hill, Mrs. J. J. Blanchard of Warsaw, and Miss Betty Blanchard of Warsaw.
