

Sorosis Holds Supper Meeting

The North Carolina Junior Sorosis held its monthly business meeting Friday night at 7 o'clock at the clubhouse, in the form of a supper meeting. The table was attractively decorated with burning candles and a floral centerpiece of violets.

Lt. Helen Madden of the Wilmington Recruiting station made an interesting talk on the increasing need for Army nurses in the hospitals to care for the country's returning men. Lt. Madden said that the wounded soldiers are coming home faster than they could be taken care of. U. S. Army official photographs were passed among the club members showing litter patients, ambulatory patients, many of whom were without arms and legs, and many pictures depicting ways the Army nurses were aiding wounded soldiers and training them to go back into civilian life with their self-respect.

Lt. Madden said that in many cases men awaiting reassignment have had to do the job of a nurse which has caused much resentment among the boys toward the women of America. The men were disgusted with the job and were anxious for assignment elsewhere.

Pamphlets were passed to members of the club and Lt. Madden asked that the women do all possible to make the goal of 8,000 additional Army nurses possible by March 20.

Business of the hour was transacted with Mrs. Lewis Bright, president, presiding. Various reports were made and projects were discussed.

Mrs. Carl Powers gave a talk on the Hobby Show which is to be held March 21. Mrs. Powers described several interesting entries and urged all members to invite anyone who has an interesting hobby to enter it into the Hobby Show.

Mrs. James Neilson, Miss Mary Ann Cheatham, Mrs. Ed McGraw and Mrs. Howard Kilburn were voted to membership in the club.
