Chinnis - Allen Vows Solemnized

The First Presbyterian church in Wilmington was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Silvia Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Allen, Jr., of Wilmington, and Jack Deans Chinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Chinnis, of this city, on Saturday afternoon, March 3, at 5:30 o'clock.

The bride was attended by Miss Betty Lewis as maid-of-honor, while Mrs. Harlan McKeithan attended as matron-of-honor. Miss Marie Chinnis, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Margaret Jean Thornton of Goldsboro, Miss Madelyn Marshburn and Mrs. Liletha Crabtree all of Wilmington, were bridesmaids.

Mr. Chinnis brother Samuel Chinnis, attended him as best man and his ushers were: George Davis, Yi LeGwin, Joe LeGwin, Roy Lamb and Earl Biggs.

The Rev. William Crow, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The chancel of the church was decorated with cyodum ferns, palms and candelabra holding burning tapers. The altar vase was filled with white gladioli, and standing arrangements filled with calla lilies were used to complete the decorations.

While the guests assembled and during the service a program of nuptial music was rendered by the church organist and Mrs. Sam Troy, Jr., soloist, sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful wedding gown of heavy duchess satin fashioned on long sweeping princess lines with heart-shaped neckline, long fitting sleeves and full skirt which formed a sweeping train in the back. The dress was embroidered in seed pearls on the bodice. Her illusion veil fell from a graceful design of orange blossoms and her bridal bouquet was of white carnations centered with lavender orchids and freesia. She completed her costume with a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore identical gowns of chiffon, in pastel shades, and were fashioned with deep V-necklines, three-quarter length sleeves edged with a soft ruffle as were the skirts, tiered with ruffles. They wore tiny hats of chiffon made with a ruffle effect. Their bouquets were of pastel snapdragons and carnations tied with matching tulle.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Allen wore a gown of Old Gold jersey and a corsage of brown orchids. Mrs. Chinnis chose a gown of rose lace and a purple orchid shoulder corsage. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Silvia, wore black lace and a corsage of orchids, while her paternal grandmother, Mrs. W. R. Allen, Sr., wore blue crepe and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home following the ceremony, after which the couple left for a wedding trip. For travel the bride changed to a powder blue wool suit with which she wore navy accessories and orchids taken from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended the local schools and is a graduate of New Hanover High school. Mr. Chinnis, also a graduate of the local schools, is serving in the United States Navy.

The Allen home was attractively decorated with many arrangements of spring flowers and candles and in the dining room the bride's cake was presided over by Mrs. F. W. Selden, while Miss Carolyn Hollingsworth of Goldsboro, presided over the punch bowl she was assisted in serving by Misses Rosalie Lewis, Barbara
