AWARDED BRONZE STAR

Pfc. James Hayes, son of Mr.

and Mrs. J. B. Hayes, of Rocky Point, has been cited for bravery

"While on duty operating an observation post of the intelligence and reconnaissance platoon, Pvt. Hayes received a request by telephone from the artillery unit attached to his regiment for him to act as forward observer. Despite the fact that he had never before acted as forward observer, Pvt. Hayes, with two other men, performed the job daringly and intelligently. Detecting their position, the enemy immediately began registering artillery fire on the men, but they courageously continued their task in the face of the heavy fire and at great risk to their lives.

"Pvt. Hayes valiantly stayed at his post directing the fire until the enemy gun position had been silenced. His courage, ingenuity and devotion to duty in skillfully performing a task totally unfamiliar to him are in keeping with the finest traditions of the mington, is convalescing at Mc- armed forces of the United States
