Celeno C. Kenly, Cpl. R. L. Walker Engaged To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenly of Berlin, Md., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Celeno Claypole Kenly, and the great granddaughter of the late Walker Meares and wife, Anne Claypole Meares of Wilmington, to Corporal Richard Lewis Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shortridge Walker of Allentown, Pa.

Miss Kenly was graduated from Allentown High school, class of 1942, and is now a member of Alpha Lambda Omicron sorority at Cedar Crest college. In high school, she was a member of the Lambda Sigma Tau sorority in which she served as vice-president. She is a member of the modern dance and is sophomore representative on the Student Government Council. She is also a member of the Daughter's Division of the Allentown Women's club.

Corporal Walker received his B.S. degree last October 20, at Brother's college, Drew university, after having left college in his senior year last February to join the Army Air Forces. He was transferred to the Army Special Training program because of an aptitude for languages and has recently completed a course in Chinese in which he is rated fluent, at the University of Pennsylvania. He is at present at Fort Reilly, Kan., attending cavalry school until he receives his assignment to China.

He was graduated from Drew university cum laude and was elected to Sigma Phi, the highest honor society at the college. He was also a member of the Pi Gamma Mu science fraternity.

Miss Sara T. Reeves And Duval Koonce Wed

CHADBOURN, March 31.—The wedding of Miss Sara T. Reeves of Louisville, Ky., cadet student of Duke university, and Duval H. Koonce, U. S. A. a senior in the school of Medicine, Duke university was solemnized Saturday evening March 4, at 8 o'clock in the Assembly Methodist church, Durham.

The Rev. M. W. Lawrence, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister, and the double ring ceremony was used. The chancel was decorated with palms, Easter lilies and lighted candles. The organist of the church gave a program of nuptial music. Among the numbers were a violin solo, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Miss Rubilee Pike, and a vocal solo, "Because" sung by Miss Evelyn Morgan. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, James L. Reeves. She wore a wedding gown of slipper satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neck and full skirt. Her illusion veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book centered with a white orchid.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. E. Kelly Wagers, matron-of-honor, who wore a blue net dress with matching halo hat, and carried a French bouquet, and Miss Mildred Reeves, maid-of-honor, wearing an identical costume of pink net.

The bridegroom had his best man his brother, J. E. Koonce, Jr. of Raleigh. The ushers were classmates, Waldo Powell, U. S. N. and Jack Wycoff, U. S. N.

Mrs. J. L. Reeves, mother of the bride, wore a blue costume, and Mrs. J. E. Koonce, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of aqua crepe. Their corsages were of gardenias.

The bride's family arrived Thursday in Durham and were at the Washington Duke hotel. After the ceremony, dinner was served there to the bridal party and members of the two families present.

Following a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Koonce will be at home in Durham.

The following out-of-town guests were present for the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bailey, Miss Miriam Bailey and Mrs. T. E. Dean, Fair Bluff, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend massaging preparation helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness... it refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.
