GREEK KEY MOTIF inspired this striking print, with black and taupe motifs on a fuchsia crepe ground, by Peter Todd Mitchell in collaboration with Norman Norell. Afternoon gown has flange sleeves, front-fulness skirt.

A SULTAN'S TURBAN inspired Adrian of Hollywood to design this spectacular print, which he has fashioned into a graceful surplice style coat dress with sash tie and the typical Adrian broad-shouldered silhouette.

PRICE TO PREACH AT TEMPLE TODAY

Officials of the New Building Fund Emphasis Day drive of Temple Baptist church reported yesterday that pledges amounting to $8,299.25 had been obtained at a victory supper held Thursday night. This was $3,299.25 above the original goal of $5,000.

Building fund workers immediately thereafter set out to raise an additional $10,000 by today. Officials said yesterday that "if we do raise $10,000 by Easter Sunday, that will make over $32,000 now in the New Building fund, $17,000 of which has been given in the past five months."

Dr. Theron D. Price will be guest speaker at the Easter service today, which is expected to be attended by at least 50. Four hundred are expected at the Sunday school service. Amplifiers in the Sunday school rooms and church annex will make it possible for all to hear Dr. Price.

A turkey supper was served to the workers participating in the campaign on Thursday night through the courtesy of Louis O. Fonvielle, C. W. Boyette, G. C. Gilbert, and R. B. Roebuck.

The tables, arranged in the form of a V, were decorated in the Easter motif of soft shades of pink, lavender, green and white. The colors were repeated in flower arrangements on each table.

Group singing was enjoyed, with several songs especially written for the building fund drive being rendered. Fred H. Capps sang several solo selections, accompanied by Mrs. Ira D. Ferrell.

The TNBF quartet, composed of J. M. Bullard, V. A. Caudill, G. C. Malpass and W. J. Stephenson, sang to the accompaniment of Mrs. G. C. Gilbert. As an encore the quartet sang a number written especially thanking those who sponsored the Victory Supper.

Remarks were made by Louis O. Fonvielle, general chairman, W. J. Stephenson, pastor, and Miss Carol Leigh Humphries, Mrs. Fonvielle called on the various chair-

Special Music Planned Today At First Presbyterian Church

"The Victory of Faith" will be the theme of the sermon by the Rev. William Crowe, Jr., as the First Presbyterian church this morning at 11:15 o'clock according to an announcement issued yesterday by church leaders.

A brief organ recital of Easter music will be given by John E. Pfeil, organist and director of music, on the Sprunt Memorial Skinner organ.

The recital will begin before 11 o'clock and will continue until the opening of the service. "On Earth Has Danced This Day of Days", by Bach; "Come Ye People, Raise the Strain", by Whitford; and "Allegro Maestoso", by Handel, will be sung among the themes featured in the preludes to the service. The Chancel choir will sing an anthem "Open Our Eyes" by Macfarlane and a soprano solo will be sung by Mary Eunice Troy, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth", by Handel. Arrangements to extend the church's public address system to the Kenan Memorial chapel to accommodate part of the overflow congregation have been made, it was said.

An organ musicale will be the feature of the evening service when the church will present Mr. Pfeil for his first entire service of music since he came a month ago to take over the responsibility of the church's expanded program of music. Mildred Farrar Muddock, contralto soloist, will assist Mr. Pfeil in presenting the musicale. Among the organ numbers to be featured will be "Rigaudon" (Ferrari); "As

Evelyn Brown Named To Home Ec Fraternity

GREENSBORO, March 31—Recognized for their scholarship, leadership and professional ethics in the field of home economics, two juniors at the Woman's college have been pledged to Alpha Kappa chapter of Omicron Nu, national scholastic fraternity in home economics. They are Misses Ruth Winterling, Charlotte, and Evelyn Brown, Wilmington.

The pledge ceremony took place in the reception room of Home Economics building, and formal initiation will be held next month. Miss Frances Scott, Statesville, was sole member taken into the fraternity last fall.

Miss Sadie Suggs, Gastonia, is president of the chapter, which was installed at the college four years ago. Other officers are Misses Julia Bradshaw, Wilson, vice president; Irene Kossow, Brookline, N. Y., secretary; and Evelyn Mptley, Charleston, W. Va., treasurer. Mrs. Charles M. Platt, of the faculty is editor, and Miss Mabel Swanson is faculty adviser.

Private quail-shooting preserves, some ranging from 10,000 to 20,000 acres, are maintained in some southern states.

Mary Nell Baldwin Engaged To Marry John Leroy Lamb, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Baldwin of Harbor Island, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Nell, to John Leroy Lamb, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lamb of Winter Park.

The wedding will take place at St. Matthew's Lutheran church on Saturday, April 7, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

SOCIAL SITUATION

THE SITUATION: A woman's name is mentioned and someone says, "I think she is lovely looking," and you don't agree.

WRONG WAY: Say, "I don't think she is at all attractive!"—since you have a right to your own opinion.

RIGHT WAY: Either say something complimentary about her, or say nothing. (It isn't polite to question another's taste. And be-will appear catty to others.)
