EXCHANGE HEARS SATIRE ON WARS

Dr. Edwin F. Keever read a poem, composed by Bernard Clumey, in satire about the wars in the twelfth century at the Exchange Club meeting yesterday.

Dr. Keever interpreted the application of the poem to the events of today, such as world-wide wings of horror, double dealing diplomats and peace conferences posing beautiful ideals with greedy nations maneuvering for a chance to gain advantage.

Guest of the club was Corporal Charles DeVere just returned from England.

Charles Burke and Benjamin Gurr were inducted into membership by Past-President C. D. Barcliff.

J. B. Edwards reported attendance at the Jaycee meeting on the topic of entertainment for returnees at Camp Davis.

Albert Brown and Conley Rogers reported on the setup for the collection of old clothes for relief among the Allies.

Dr. Guy Pigford announced the Inter-Club Bowling Banquet of next Wednesday night at the Brigade Boys' Club.

Wilbur Jones served as program chairman and R. Stewart, president, presided.

NAZI BRIDGES OUTNUMBERED

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(AP)—The Allies now have nine more bridges across the Rhine than the Germans ever had. The exact number isn't being disclosed, but it includes all types down to pontoon bridges of the smallest size.

ANKARA, April 5.—(Correct)—Travelers from Budapest reported that Adm. Nicholas Horthy, former regent of Hungary, died of a heart attack in a chateau in Germany.

Horthy had been reported confined in Weinheim castle near Munich.

STOCK LEADERS NOTE RECOVERY

NEW YORK, April 6.—(AP)—Stock market leaders generally came back fractions to more than a point today but the recovery was notably slow-going and numerous customers continued to hold aloof pending more Russian-Japanese developments and possibly important war news.

While the feeling the world conflict might have been shortened by recent events buoyed many issues, companies with fewer recovery problems, those with definite armament ratings made little if any headway. Dividends, earnings and individual situations, inspired a certain amount of bidding.

Dealings, fairly active at the start, soon dwindled but expanded toward the end. Closing prices were at or around the day's best. Transfers of 610,000 shares compared with 680,000 Thursday and again were among the smallest of the past six months.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .3 of a point at 60.4. Of 839 issues registering, 375 were gained, 249 losers and 217 unchanged.

Bonds were a trifle irregular. At Chicago, wheat advanced 1/2 to 1-1/8 cents a bushel and rye 2-1/4 to 3-5/8. Cotton was 10 to 30 cents a bale higher.

On the upside in the Curb were Eversharp, lifted by a splitup program; American Gas, Humble Oil, Sullivan Machinery and United Cigar. Turnover here was 200,000 versus 250,000 yesterday.

1,212 JAP PLANES LOST AT OKINAWA

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(AP)—Vice-Admiral Marc Mitscher's carrier task force and supporting forces have shot down, destroyed on the ground and damaged a total of 1,212 Japanese planes since the Okinawa operation began March 17, the Navy said today.

The recapitulation showed the task force accounted for 954, and supporting forces 258 of the total, a spokesman said.

While this record no doubt accounts to a large degree for the lack of serious opposition from enemy air to date, he said, the Japanese air effort "has not been ended by a long shot."

Plane losses as well as damage to ground installations, have undoubtedly disrupted the enemy's air force organization, and it will take time for them to reorganize and get back into shape, he explained.

The Japanese gasoline situation is also becoming acute because of the strangulation of supply lines to the rich oil fields in the stolen empire in the Southwest Pacific.

A total of 244 surface vessels of all types including ships, junks, trawlers, schooner and small craft have been destroyed since the start of the Okinawa operation, he said. In addition, 206 were damaged and 43 probably sunk.
