The Chapel Of The Cross Scene Of Broadfoot-Bason Wedding Vows

CHAPEL HILL, April 7.—The Chapel of The Cross was the scene of a wedding of state-wide interest on Sunday April 7 at 5:30 o'clock, when Mary Burnham Bason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bason, Jr., became the bride of Major William Gillies Broadfoot, Jr., Air Corps, AUS., son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Broadfoot of Wilmington. The Rev. R. Emmet Gribbin was the officiating clergyman.

CHAPEL HILL, April 7.—The mother of the bridegroom wore a gown of black crepe with black hat and gardenia corsage. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bason gave a reception at their home for the families of the bride and bridegroom and out-of-town guests.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and decorated with a center-piece of white snapdragons, stocks and white iris and handsome Meissen candelabra in which the figures portrayed the four seasons. The bride's cake was at one end of the table, and from the other punch was served from a silver bowl.

The guests who came from out-of-town to attend the wedding included, besides the bridegroom's parents and brothers, from Wilmington Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. Hotch McKay, Mrs. James Warburg and Miss Frances Thornton; from Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Watts Carr, Mrs. Watts Carr, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alex Worth and their daughter Mrs. Pride C. Brown, Prof. and Mrs. Albert Wackerman, Mrs. Gordon James, Mrs. Walter Simmons, Mrs. Mary Norcott Pemberton, her daughter Mrs. Clarence N. Pemberton and grand-daughter Mary Norcott Pemberton of Yanceyville, from Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. William Bason, George Faust Bason, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Robert Wauchope; from Albemarle, Mrs. Robert Peet and from Sanford, Mrs. Charles Reeves.

Major and Mrs. Broadfoot will be in Miami for a short time pending Major Broadfoot's assignment to a new post by the Army.

The bride wore a suit of light blue wool with black accessories and an orchid corsage. She is a graduate of Lumberton High school and has been employed as secretary in the local branch of the state highway office.

Sgt. Bracey returned in March from Italy, where he had completed 50 missions as waist gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress with the 15th Air Force during the past eight months. He is a graduate of Lumberton High school.

The couple have gone to Miami Beach, Fla., for two weeks before the groom is reassigned to duty.

Miss Bruton was honored at a three-course dinner given by Mrs. J. O. Bracey, Jr., Mrs. Chick Prevatte and Miss Helen Neal Collins at the Lorraine Hotel. The bride's place was marked with a corsage of white carnations and she was presented a gift of lingerie.

book which was the gift of her great-grandmother to her mother, and a white orchid showered with butterfly orchids and lilies of the valley.

Her three attendants were gowned in white net over white taffeta with Juliette caps of pearls and carried bouquets of spring flowers in pastel shades. The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Howard Crow of Columbus, Ga., and the brides sisters, Miss Johnnie Bason and Miss Frances Bason were her bridesmaids.

Major Broadfoot had his brother, Lt. Winston Broadfoot, USNR, as his best man, and his groomsmen and ushers were his father, William G. Broadfoot, his brother, Bryan Broadfoot, Arthur Diehl, of Wilmington, George McDuffey of Atlanta, Ga., and the bride's brother, George F. Bason, III.

The bride's mother was attired in aqua crepe, with black picture hat and a corsage of gardenias.

Fashion Show And Dance Slated By Lions Club At Armory April 20

Paul T. Marshburn, music chairman of the Lions club fashion show and dance, which will be held at the Cape Fear Armory, Friday April 20, announced yesterday that Dean Hudson and his orchestra will furnish the music for the event, which will be for the benefit of the Lions Club Blind Fund.

Marshburn said that Hudson had just completed a seven-months engagement at the Lincoln Hotel, New York.

"This band," he said, "has appeared over all national hookups. It has been featured on the Fitch Bandwagon program and the Coca-Cola parade of spotlight bands."

The featured singer of the Hudson orchestra is Frances Colwell, one of the original members of the band when it was organized at the University of Florida.

M. Eugene Bullard, general chairman of the Lions program, announced that the program was at the printers, decorations from a supply house in Chicago have arrived, and that tickets are being printed and would be ready for distribution by Monday.

Clothes for the fashion show part of the program will be furnished by several of Wilmington's leading shops and the girls who will act as models are members of a local sorority, which has had considerable experience in staging fashion shows here.
